EXHIBIT OF OREGON PRODUCTS.

EUGENE CITY, May 10.

... THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

In your issue of May 6 you mention that O... on is not to be represented in the exhibit ... her products, manufactures, arts and indu... es of the United States soon to be opened in ... ondon. Now, if this is to be another great ... orld's fair, and in so important a city as L... n, why cannot the state of Oregon be repre... nted in some way by her products. She has ... een more successful at all other world's fairs ... an any other state or nation with her produc... n of cereals. I am not yet informed how ... is world's fair is going to be managed, but un... rstand that it is to include all the states of ... merica, England, her dominions, and all other ... tions. I can make a larger and better ex... bit of wheat, oats and barley than has ever ... t been produced at any of the world's fairs. ... can send a hundred different kinds of wheat ... the straw and shelled, that the soil and cli... ate of England and no other state or nation ... n equal for fine quality, size, plumpness and ... lor. This would be the means of making the ... nds of the Willamette valley more known to ... ousands of people of other nations, and emi... ation naturally would be attracted. It would ... e a judicious system of showing to the world ... e advantages of Oregon for the production of ... heat over all other states and nations. ... I might let the grain go on terms something ... e this, let the premiums be what they will ... want to, first, enter and compete with every ... riety, each sample in its class, that is the same ... ine within the building as the best wheat; ... cond, for the best ten sheaves of winter ... heat in the straw, and ten best sheaves of ... ring wheat, all being properly labeled, and ... t over six inches in diameter; third, for the ... st sample of winter wheat properly named, ... say about a peck; fourth, for the best ... mple of spring wheat; fifth, for the best dis... ay of wheat in glass jars of uniform size, each ... ass to contain a different variety of wheat, and ... operly labeled and produced by one person; ... xth, for the best display of wheat produced by ... e man of any county, state or nation; seventh, ... the best display of grain, including wheat, ... rley and oats, produced by any man in the ... orld. Or I will sell this large exhibit of grain ... any company that will take it there, with the ... derstanding that it must be entered as above ... scribed. Further, whoever buys it must con... er that it costs labor, study and time to raise ... ch an exhibit. The exhibit of wheat I raised ... t year is at the immigration board rooms in ... rtland, purchased by them last fall. Any one ... shing to see it will be very apt to believe that ... cannot be excelled for quality in any country, ... d this year I will raise more varieties and will ... ve a much larger exhibit.

ANOTHER SUGGESTION.

PORTLAND, May 11.

... THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Your correspondent "P" in to-day's OREGONIAN has what you call a "good suggestion" in ... ard to a way of raising money for the Na... mo sufferers. I would like to go a little fur... r, and call it a brilliant suggestion, and to ... end its application so that a grand sum shall ... raised for these poor people. This I call a brilliant suggestion and ... that might be used almost without limit. ... e or two ways occur to me that I would pro... se. The Y. M. C. A. has recently raised a ... ndsome sum for a new building in Portland. ... this be taken and used in the same way. It ... uld be a grand sum for these sufferers, over... dowing completely the comparatively small ... spital fund for the queen's jubilee. Then ... ney has recently been given for a Working ... men's Home. This could be taken and used ... he same way. OUR LITTLE GRANDCHILD

Cleansed, Purified and Beautified by the Cuticura Remedies.

It affords me pleasure to give you this report of the cure of our little grandchild by your CUTICURA REMEDIES. When six months old his left hand began to swell and had every appearance of a large boil. We poulticed it, but all to no purpose. About five months after it became a running sore. Soon other sores formed. He then had two of them on each hand, and as his blood became more and more impure, it took less time for them to break out. A sore came on the chin, beneath the under lip, which was very offensive. His head was one solid scab, discharging a great deal. This was his condition at twenty two months old, when I undertook the care of him, his mother having died when he was a little more than a year old of consumption (scrofula, of course). He could walk a little, but could not get up if he fell down, and could not move when in bed, having no use of his hands. I immediately commenced with the CUTICURA REMEDIES, using the CUTICURA and CUTICURA SOAP freely, and when he had taken one bottle of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT his head was completely cured and he was improved in every way. We were very much encouraged and continued the use of the Remedies for a year and a half. One sore after another healed, a bony matter forming in each one of these five deep ones just before healing, which would finally grow loose and were taken out, then they would heal rapidly. One of these ugly bone formations I preserved. After taking a dozen and a half bottles he was completely cured, and is now at the age of six years a strong and healthy child. The scars on his hands must always remain; his hands are strong, though we once feared he would never be able to use them. All that physicians did for him did him no good. All who saw the child before using the CUTICURA REMEDIES and see the child now consider it a wonderful cure. If the above facts are of any use to you you are at liberty to use them. MRS. E. S. DRIGGS.

The child was really in a worse condition than he appeared to his grandmother, who, being with him every day, became accustomed to the disease.

GARFIELD'S STATUE.

Unveiled by the Society of the Army of the Cumberland.

MANY PROMINENT MEN PRESENT

Gen Sheridan's Address of Presentation and President Cleveland's Response—Description of the Statue.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The second day's session of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland was a perfect specimen of Washington spring weather. The streets at an early hour were thronged with eager crowds which were increased at noon by the closing of the executive departments. The music of brass bands was heard in every quarter.

At a business meeting this morning of the society Col Henry S ... of Boston was selected as orator and William McMichael of New York as alternate at the next reunion. Chicago was selected as the place and the second week in September 1888 as the time for holding the next reunion. The present officers of the society were re-elected for the ensuing year.

Promptly at 11:30 Gen Baird, chief marshal, gave the signal for marching and the procession started. A platoon of mounted police led the way, followed by Gen Baird and his aides, who preceded the carriage in which were seated Gens Sherman, Sheridan and Rosecrans, three of the four living commanders of the Army of the Cumberland, Gen Buell, the remaining commander, being unable to be present.

Then followed the first division, composed as follows: Band, battalion of Third artillery acting as the Garfield Guard of Honor, Society of the Army of the Cumberland, marine band and a battalion of marines and a detachment of 200 sailors from the U. S. steamer Galena.

Second division, District militia, composed of Washington infantry corps, two Union Veteran corps, National Rifles and Washington Continental, Emmet Guard, Capitol City Guard, Butler Zouaves, Washington cadet corps, High School cadets and Corcoran cadets, Grand Army of the Republic and civic societies. The whole division was under command of Major Goodloe of the U. S. marine corps.

THE PROCESSION.

The right of the procession moved up H to Eighteenth street, each organization wheeling into line as the left preceding company passed from Eighteenth street. The procession proceeded to Pennsylvania avenue, down which it marched to Third street, where the first division debouched and proceeded down Third to Maryland avenue and halted on that avenue near the Garfield monument. The second division continued on its course and took a position on First street at the north of the statue.

On the grand stand near the statue seats have been arranged for 1500 persons. A number of these were occupied at least an hour before the procession arrived. A pair of comfortable arm chairs in the center of the stand were reserved for the president and Mrs Cleveland. Places were also reserved for the sculptor and other favored guests. A large circle surrounding the monument was kept clear by the police. Secretary Bayard and Attorney General Garland were seated on the left of Mrs Cleveland. The members of the supreme court, district judiciary, court of claims and district commissioners and representatives of the diplomatic corps and two sons of Gen Garfield occupied conspicuous seats near the president's chair.

At 1 o'clock Generals Sherman, Sheridan and Rosecrans and Gov Curtin arrived just after the head of the procession made its appearance. They were soon followed by President Cleveland, escorted by Gen Anderson and Secretary and Mrs Fairchild, Col and Mrs Lamont, Postmaster General Vilas and Secretary Lamar. Mrs Cleveland came accompanied by Mrs Folsom, Miss Bayard and Mrs Welsh just after 1 o'clock, and took her seat beside the president's chair. Ex-Secretary Windom and ex-Attorney General MacVeagh of President Garfield's cabinet were among the guests present.

THE EXERCISES.

At 1:10 o'clock Marshal Wilson, taking his place on the stand, said: "Attention, ladies and gentlemen. The Society of the Army of the Cumberland, with these distinguished guests, are assembled here to-day for the purpose [illegible] of that great statesman [illegible]. The exercises will be opened with prayer by Rev Dr Giesy."

At the close of the prayer the Marine band, surrounding the monument, struck up "Hail to the Chief," and amid clapping of hands the American flag enveloping the statue was dropped and the great image stood exposed to the rays of the midday sun, while a battery of artillery fired a national salute.

Gen Sheridan then introduced the orator of the day, Gen J Warren Keifer, who on the part of the monument committee delivered an address transferring the statue to Gen Sheridan.

At its conclusion Gen Sheridan on behalf of the society transferred the statue to the president in the following words: "Mr President: This statue which has been unveiled in your presence to-day was erected by the comrades of Gen Garfield belonging to the army of the Cumberland, and they wished to pay some testimony to his merit and his worth as a man. I have the honor, sir, on behalf of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, to ask you as representative of the American people to accept the statue from their hands as it was given me."

The president, who arose as Gen Sheridan began speaking, then began his address accepting the statue as a gift to the nation.

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

Fellow Citizens:—In the performance of the duty assigned me on this occasion I hereby accept, on behalf of the people of the United States, this complete and beautiful statue. Amid an interchange of fraternal greetings between survivors of the army of the Cumberland and their former foes upon the battlefield, and while the Union general and the people's president awaited burial, the common grief of these magnanimous survivors and mourning citizens found expression in a determination to erect this tribute of American greatness, and thus to-day, in its symmetry and beauty, it presents a sign of animosities forgotten, an emblem of brotherhood redeemed and a token of a nation restored. Monuments and statues as they multiply throughout the land fittingly illustrate the love and affection of our grateful people in commemorating brave and patriotic sacrifices in war, fame in peaceful pursuits or honor in public station. But from this day forth there shall stand at our seat of government this statue of a distinguished citizen who in his life and services combined all these things, and more, which challenge admiration in American character. Loving tenderness in every domestic relation, bravery on the field of battle, fame and distinction in our halls of legislation, and the highest honor and dignity in the chief magistracy of the nation. This stately effigy shall not fail to teach every beholder that the source of American greatness is confined to no condition, nor dependent alone for its growth and development upon favorable surroundings. The genius of our national life beckons to us and offers the highest preferment to manly hopes and sturdy honest effort, chastened and consecrated by patriotic hopes and aspirations. As long as this statue stands let it be proudly remembered that to every American citizen the way is open to fame and station until he, moving up from high preferment to higher, becomes on fortune's crowning step the pillar of a people's hope, the center of a world's desire. We cannot forget that it teaches our people a sad and distressing lesson, and the thoughtful citizen who views its fair proportions cannot fail to recall the tragedy of death which brought grief and mourning to every household in the land. But while American citizenship stands aghast and affrighted that murder and assassination should lurk in the midst of a free people and strike down the head of their government, fearless search and discovery of the origin and hiding place of these hateful and unnatural things should be followed by the sole resolve to purge forever from our political methods and from the operation of our government the perversions and misconceptions which gave birth to passionate and bloody thoughts. If from this hour our admiration for bravery and nobility of American manhood and our faith in the possibilities and opportunities of American citizenship be renewed, if our appreciation of the blessings of a restored Union and love for our government be strengthened and if our watchfulness against the dangers of a mad chase after partisan spoils be quickened, the dedication of this statue to the people of the United States will not be in vain.

FREQUENTLY APPLAUDED.

During the delivery of the address the president was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause. He spoke fluently in a clear voice, which was audible to most of the vast crowd that filled the circle before the stand. When he had concluded the band played "Hail Columbia" and Rev J. D. Power, who was pastor of Gen Garfield's church in this city, pronounced a benediction. The troops were then dismissed and the ceremonies came to an end.

DESCRIPTION OF THE STATUE.

The statue, which is of bronze, is the design of Sculptor J. Q. A. Ward, who also designed the [illegible] statue of Gen Thomas in this city. It is ten feet six inches in height and represents Garfield [illegible] in the act of delivering an address [illegible] right hand resting on a column and [illegible]. Recumbent ideal figures [illegible] each corner of the triangular pedestal represent the student, warrior and statesman, typifying [illegible] of Garfield's career. Bronze tablets [illegible] a globe trumpet and [illegible] the sides of [illegible] the shaft are placed [illegible] as follows: [illegible] James A. Garfield, 1831-1881 [illegible] Major General U. S. V., Member of Congress, Senator and President of the United States of America."

On the north face: "Erected by his Comrades of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland, May 12, 1887."

The erection of the statue was authorized at a meeting of the [illegible] and nine members were appointed to select a design and superintend its construction. The committee paid over to the sculptor, Mr Ward, $56,743 in full settlement of his claim.

THE MAXWELL LAND GRANT

The Attorney General Files a Motion for a Rehearing in the Supreme Court.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The attorney general has filed in the United States supreme court a motion for a rehearing of the Maxwell land grant case on the general ground that the court erred in treating the grant as an impressario grant. In his brief, in support of the motion, the attorney general says: "It is possible that the court, looking at the magnitude of the public interests involved and the fact that this motion has the sanction of the head of a great department of the government, will allow the United States an opportunity not only to make a satisfactory statement of evidence which it is claimed has been newly discovered, if it appear possible that any such evidence could be taken into consideration on this appeal, but also to present such additional matters of law as may tend to support said motion.

SPORTING NOTES.

A FINE DAY'S SPORT AT LOUISVILLE.

LOUISVILLE, May 12.—The second day of the Louisville spring meeting witnessed some good racing. The time was excellent and the fields large. Notwithstanding a shower just before 2 o'clock and heavy threatening weather overhead there were between 5000 and 6000 people present. The judges were Maj John S Clark of Lexington, Capt James Franklin of Gallatin, Tenn, and Col M Lewis Clarke. The timers were W S Barnes, W G Thomas and Mr Van Kirkman of Nashville. It did not rain enough to hurt the track any and the clouds afforded protection from the sun. Some trouble and long delay occurred over the fourth race. Little Minch came in first, Modesty second, Col Owens third and Red Stone fourth, but Modesty claimed a foul. As they passed into the stretch Little Minch had swerved in front of her, cutting her off. Little Minch would have won anyway, but the judges decided Modesty first, Col Owens second, Red Stone third and Little Minch last.

The dark ones continue to make the big betters ... Los Angeles and Volante being the only two favorites who came up to expectations.

First race, five furlongs, Louisville ladies' stakes for two-year-old fillies—The starters were Connie B (Blaylock), Amelia P (Turner), Los Angeles (West), Winona (Caldwell), Lenora (Hogan), Miss B ... (...), Outstep (Arnold), Kitty Gunn (Withers), Leontine (Isaac Lewis), Frederica (Buchanan), The Crow (Thayer), Sultan ... (Stoval), Lily Virgil (Finnegan). Each carried 112 pounds. The Crow ran off three miles this morning and was scratched in the race. After several false starts they got off to a good start, Kitty Gunn in the lead, Los Angeles second. At the head of the stretch Winona was first, Los Angeles second, Kitty Gunn third. They raced this way to the wire. Los Angeles won, Winona two lengths in front of Kitty Gunn. Time, 1:0_.

Second race, one and three-eighths miles—Starters: Athlone, Vincent 107; Aristocrat, Gerhardy 107; Jaubert, Hathaway 90. Aristocrat and Athlone were off first. Passing the grand stand Athlone and Aristocrat lapped and ran thus all the way around to the three-quarter pole, when Jaubert was given his head and coming along won easily by two lengths, Aristocrat second, a head in front of Athlone. Time, 2:2_.

Third race, Dixiana handicap for three-year-olds and upwards, one and a quarter miles—The starters were: Ofallon, Vincent 105; Comedie, Kelly 90; Grey Cloud, Johnson 100; Longalight, Hathaway 100; Wahoo, Caldwell 107; Lucky B, Murphy 118; Jacobin, Harris 107. Ofallon led the crowd all the way to the head of the stretch where Jacobin came forward and held the position, Ofallon second, Lucky B third and Wahoo fourth. Time, 2:0_¼.

Fourth race, three-quarters mile dash for three-year-olds and upwards—The starters were: Estrella, Modesty, Euphony, Marcy Mack, Cassie, Col Owens, Red Stone, Allegheny, Blazes, Glen Ban, Tom Berlin, Dark Hall, Miss Cleveland and Little Minch. Marcy Mack got off first, the rest in a bunch. At the three quarters Little Minch came to the front and staid there, but the judges decided Modesty first, with Blaylock up, and Col Owens, ridden by Turner, second. Time, 1:14½.

Fifth race, one and one-eighth miles—The starters were Uncle Dan, Volante, Maj Walker, Jennie McFarland, Wary, Levantine and Foster. Maj Walker led the way part of the time, but Volante was winner, after a close finish, with Wary second and Foster third. Time, 1:56½.

TO-DAY'S PROGRAMME AT LOUISVILLE.

THE NATIONAL TROTTING ASSOCIATION.

CHICAGO, May 12.—The board of review of the National Trotting Association at their session this morning heard evidence in thirty nine disputed cases out of fifty they had on hand. Mr M M Morse, the gentleman named to succeed Thomas M Vail as secretary, had not, up to the noon hour, notified the board whether he would accept or decline the position. President Grant said that Mr Morse was expected to appear in person before the board during the day.

The resignation of Secretary Vail and the effect, immediate or remote, which it will have on the status of the rival American and National Trotting Associations is a subject of much debate among horsemen. Mr Smith, a prominent horseman of Earlville, Illinois, said on the question: "The American Association people say they have come to stay, Vail or no Vail. They have a good many associations with them and there will be a struggle for life which will result in the survival of the fittest. I think, though, that quite a number of the tracks that withdrew will come back."

J. McM. Shafter of San Francisco, said: "The members of the American Association went out solely, so they claimed, on account of Mr Vail, and now that he is out they have no excuse for not returning. Notwithstanding they say they left on account of Mr Vail, I think that was not the only reason. There were other causes that sent them out, and whether they will come back or not will show whether Vail is to blame for it all.

THE BALTIMORE RACES.

BALTIMORE, May 12.—The weather was bright and the track in fair condition.

Three quarter mile—Brittanic won, Jennie B second, Patrocles third. Time, 1:16¼.

Mile and a quarter, for 3-year-old fillies—Lizzie Baker won, Maggie Mitchell second, Queen Elizabeth third. Time, 2:13½.

Mile—Buffalo won, Vassal Gelding second, Maggie J third. Time, 1:44½.

Mile and a quarter, for all ages—Lelie Doe won, Adonis second, Enigma third. Time, 2:13.

Mile and one-sixteenth—Pat Sheedy won, Frances B second, Glendon third. Time, 1:51½.

WASHINGTON NEWS ITEMS.

A TALK WITH KEIFER.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The World's Washington special says: In an interview here on Ohio politics ex-Speaker Keifer said yesterday that intelligent people of Ohio favor Sherman for president, and they would nominate Foraker for governor and elect him. The democrats had no chance of electing a governor. Sherman could carry Ohio. Either he or Blaine could carry the state. He did not think Foraker would be in the presidential convention. Cleveland, he adds, is unpopular among the democrats, "and I know that he is very unpopular with them out my way, but he can get the nomination. He may grow in strength with the people, but is not strong enough now to be elected. If he should be stronger than his party it will wreck him."

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, May 12.—The secretary of state has received a telegram from Minister Manning contradicting the report of the execution of army officers on account of the Nogales incident.

Justice Wood is somewhat easier this morning, though little hope is entertained of his recovery.

RAILROAD NOTES.

DENVER & RIO GRANDE EARNINGS.

DENVER, May 12.—Officers of the Denver & Rio Grande road to-day made public the earnings and expenditures of the road for the year ending December 31, 1886, which is as follows: Total earnings, $6,_6_7 47, an increase over 1885 of $61_; ... Total expenses, $4,_2_ 416 68, an increase over 1885 of $292,143 2_. Net earnings, $2,510,6_0 79, an increase of $326,880 51. The road was reorganized and taken out of the hands of the receiver July 18, and all interest coupons since that date have been paid.

O'Brien Hissed and Applauded at Quebec.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE COMMONS

Political News and Rumor—A Letter from John Bright—The Mexican Officers Were not Shot.

QUEBEC, May 12.—In his speech here to-night Mr O'Brien said he had to express his acknowledgements not merely to his friends but to his opponents for the courtesy and fair play he had received up to the present time. He believed that a good many prejudices and misunderstandings which had arisen with reference to his visit were being already dispelled, and expressed his confidence that the more the subject was thrashed out the more severely every humane and liberty loving man in Canada would condemn the conduct of Lord Lansdowne, and the more they would recognize that this visit was an attempt to avert total destruction of an entire community of oppressed and cruelly wronged tenants. The Irish people had not sought this quarrel with Lord Lansdowne; he had himself forced it by making himself the champion and standard bearer of the worst and most inhuman class of rack renters in Ireland. [Hisses.]

The Montreal Herald of to-day, he continued, "took up a position with which I do not for one moment quarrel. That the Canadian people would not take on statement of another's assertion that Lord Lansdowne was black as he was painted until the other side was heard from. I invite and challenge Lord Lansdowne to answer or dispute a single fact which the Herald says should not be accepted until he has had an opportunity of doing this. Lord Lansdowne need not seriously shelter himself under the plea that his official position prevented him from defending himself. In a free country like this the press is open to him as to any one, [applause] and as a matter of fact Lord Lansdowne has already very significantly availed himself of the ordinary channels of newspaper defense. He has on more than one occasion, through interviews and communiques official, done his utmost to prejudice the Canadian people with reference to my visit [hisses] and he cannot now pretend so to wrap himself up in majesty as to decline to defend himself against an indictment which if unanswered will bring upon him the reprobation of Canadian public opinion. [Applause.]

WAS PARLIAMENT WRONG?

The speaker continued: "If I be wrong in an invitation of public condemnation of the Luggacurran evictions, then the members of the Canadian parliament were wrong in presenting a resolution denouncing infamous landlords and the coercion system in Ireland. I hold, on the contrary, that it is the highest right and duty constitutionally of men enjoying the blessings of self government to know whether the ruler of their country was not himself inflicting the very injustice which the Canadian parliament deprecated and abhorred. Either they ought to expunge their resolutions of sympathy for Ireland from the books of the Canadian parliament or they ought to acknowledge that their ruler should pay a little more deference to the principles inculcated by the representatives of the Canadian people. [Applause.] The days are gone by when the Irish tenantry will submit to eviction with dejected and hopeless hearts. Our race is beginning to avail itself of its strength. We know that no Irish exterminator can find in all the world around a spot where he can hide his head from the judgment and condemnation of civilized mankind. [Applause.] It is that which has cheered the hearts of the Irish people and kept their arms from crime."

Mr O'Brien concluded his address with an eloquent peroration, predicting an early deliverance from landlordism in Ireland and from the curse and abomination of Dublin castle rule.

ENGLAND.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE COMMONS.

LONDON, May 12.—In the commons Sir John Gorst, the parliamentary secretary of the India office, moved the second reading of the bill granting leave to the commander of the forces of India in order to permit him to attend the jubilee festivities.

Lewis Dillwyn, liberal, moved to reject the motion. He said there was a strong feeling in the country against the appointment of exalted personages to positions of command over the heads of others. If appointments were to be given on account of relationship to the throne the persons so appointed ought to be under the same conditions that applied to others.

Sir John Swinburne, liberal, a retired captain of the royal navy, seconded Dillwyn's motion. He condemned the system under which royalties had the choice of places both in the army and navy without having passed through the different grades. There was the Duke of Cambridge, now field marshal, who never served either as ensign, lieutenant, captain, major or lieutenant-colonel.

The speaker interrupting, said the member was traveling beyond the question. The bill only concerned the return of the Duke of Connaught.

Sir John said it would be a graceful act on the part of the Duke of Connaught to retire in order that some distinguished officer might take his place. There was an enormous amount of ineffective service and waste of money in consequence of exalted persons holding high rank.

The speaker ruled Sir John out of order.

Labouchere denounced the bill as obsequious and servile.

Division was taken, resulting in 318 for to 45 against the bill.

POLITICAL NEWS AND RUMOR.

LONDON, May 12.—In consequence of the habitual absence of Balfour from the house during the Irish debate, Campbell Bannerman to-day tried to ascertain whether the government intended that the duties of chief secretary should devolve upon Col King Harmon, and why Balfour shirked the duty of responding to questions. Smith, first lord of the treasury, excused Balfour on the ground of pressure of Irish business.

The ministerialists expect that Balfour will withdraw from the Irish office immediately after the passage of the crimes bill. Balfour is unable to overtake the work of the department and suffers from the mental strain. Ritchie, president of the local government board, who is of stronger physique, is willing to accept the post of Irish secretary.

The breach in the personal relations of Gladstone and Lord Hartington and Chamberlain is now complete. Until recently their political differences did not cause a cessation of their personal intercourse. Now, however, when they meet in the lobbies of the commons they do not speak and do not even exchange salutations. Chamberlain sits close by Gladstone in the house but neither makes a sign of recognition.

Parnell, who is unfit for prolonged work, returns to London on urgent pressure from the Parnellites. Morley proposes that he and Gladstone confer with Parnell and Dillon in order to arrange for concerted action on amendments to the crimes bill. Gladstone is opposed to purely obstructive tactics. He wants the Parnellites to fight the clauses of the bill on the merits of their amendments.

A LETTER FROM JOHN BRIGHT.

LONDON, May 12.—John Bright writes as follows about the Parnell Dillon Times affair: "All the Times charges consists of evidence contributed by rebel conspirators themselves, and statements drawn from the United Ireland, the Irish World and other papers edited by a coterie of active conspirators. The facts are their own facts. The Times did not invent them. It only arranged them so that the public could understand the case. Parliament should have nothing to do with the matter. These conspirators and their papers charged Earl Spencer and Mr Forster with murder in knowingly hanging innocent men. Parliament did not interfere then to protect Lord Spencer and Mr Forster. Why should it defend now Irish writers and speakers and assume the labors of courts of justice?"

SUIT AGAINST LORD CAMPBELL.

LONDON, May 12.—The Duke of Marlboro has filed a petition in the bankruptcy court against Lord Colin Campbell to recover costs incurred by the duke defending himself as co-respondent in the suit for divorce brought by Campbell against his wife and decided in the lady's favor.

FRANCE.

A CABINET CRISIS POSSIBLE.

PARIS, May 12.—The action of the budget committee of the chamber of deputies in declining to accept proposals made by Premier Goblet to reduce the government estimates 13,000,000 francs on the ground that still greater economies were demanded, it is now believed constitutes a complete rupture between the cabinet and the committee. The whole matter will be referred to the chamber of deputies for action. Newspapers regard a cabinet crisis as possible.

REPRISALS AGAINST GERMANY.

PARIS, May 12.—The government has closed the velocipede factory at Maraineville, near Luneville. The property belonged to a German named Schmertz, who employed men belonging to the German imperial army. This incident is supposed to be a prelude to other reprisals against Germans. La France denounces M. Laboulaye, French ambassador at St. Petersburg, for retaining a Prussian in his service as chasseur.

LONG NAMED AND LONG LIVED.

PARIS, May 12.—Jean Baptiste Joseph Dieudonne Boussingault, member of the Institute, is dead at the age of 85 years.

WILL RETURN SATURDAY.

PARIS, May 12.—Herbette, French ambassador to Germany, returns to Berlin Saturday.

SALE OF CROWN JEWELS.

PARIS, May 12.—The sale of the crown jewels began to-day. About 250 French and foreign jewelers attended. Ten lots were disposed of, realizing 100,700 francs. Among the articles sold were a diamond necklace for 101,250 francs, and a pair of diamond epaulettes, for 61,000.

INJURED STEAMER IN PORT.

HAVRE, May 12.—The steamer La Champagne, which was beached on the coast of Calvados after being damaged by a collision, has been floated, and is now safely in dock in this port. She came in unaided.

SCOTLAND.

THE THISTLE TAKES A SAIL.

GLASGOW, May 12.—The new cutter yacht Thistle has returned from a spin in the Clyde. A slight northwest breeze was blowing. The cutter carried a huge mainsail, jib, headed topsail, number 1 jib and small staysail. She appeared thoroughly able to bear them, seemed handy and quick at the stays. She behaved admirably and made a smart pace for the light wind she had. Her owners say she satisfies them.

WEST INDIES.

THE ANGLO-HAYTIEN QUESTION SETTLED.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, May 12.—The British special commission has reached here direct from Port au Prince. The Anglo-Haytien question has been settled on the basis foreshadowed some time ago. President Salomon paid in cash and gave bonds to the British commission in the amount of $150,000. It is claimed that President Salomon not only paid the money willingly but expressed himself wholly satisfied with the amicable settlement of the claims.

IRELAND.

A BOYCOTT PROPOSED.

DUBLIN, May 12.—At a meeting of nationalists at Limerick to-day Vice President O'Shea proposed that the Irish boycott the Cunard line if it were proved that the Umbria's captain was implicated in the action of the English mob in insulting O'Brien.

PARNELL GOES TO LONDON.

DUBLIN, May 12.—Parnell left Kingstown this morning for London.

MEXICO.

THE OFFICERS WERE NOT SHOT.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 12.—The Diario Oficial denies the report published here yesterday to the effect that the officers concerned in the Nogales affair had been shot. The denial of the execution by the government organ creates a feeling of relief, as among Americans there is a sentiment that the punishment of death awarded the officers is too severe.

ITALY.

THE CHURCH AND IRELAND.

ROME, May 12.—Cardinal Simeoni, charged by the pope to examine the situation in Ireland, recommends the pope to advise Irish bishops to adhere rigorously to the course decided upon by the former council of bishops at Rome, namely, that the clergy abstain from associating themselves with agitators.

CANADA.

THE FISHERIES DISPUTE.

OTTAWA, May 12.—Sir John Macdonald says he knows nothing of any proposal to suspend operation of the fisheries protection fleet. No answer as yet has been received from the United States government to Lord Salisbury's alternative of proposals for a mixed commission to settle the fisheries question.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

SEARCHING FOR A MISER'S TREASURE.

DENVER, May 12.—John Shirley, a miserly saloon keeper, who lived in a little town forty miles west of here called Buffalo Creek, died a few days ago, and it is reported that he left a large amount of money secreted somewhere about the house or buried in the yard. Search was instituted for the money, and after several days a will was found leaving everything to a Dr Morey, who lived a mile from Shirley's cabin, but failed to state where the property could be found. An old safe standing in a small bedroom where the miser died was broken open and $63 found. Those who knew Shirley best say they have seen him have at one time $3000 in $20 gold pieces and often discount drafts for large amounts, and from the way the old man talked about his money they firmly believed that there is buried somewhere on his premises from $25,000 to $50,000 in gold. The town and surrounding country are greatly excited over the affair, and those interested in finding [illegible] are searching the house and digging the ground after the supposed treasures.

I. O. B'NAI BRITH.

MEMPHIS, May 12.—District Grand Lodge No 7, I. O. B'nai Brith, concluded its labors to-day and adjourned sine die. The next grand lodge will meet at Dallas, Texas, one year hence. The only business of importance transacted to-day was limiting the endowment of future members to $1000, with an annual assessment of $ 0. Those now in the order retain their $1500 endowment and must pay yearly $30. The utmost harmony prevailed, and congratulations were general that the vexed endowment question had after years of agitation, been satisfactorily disposed.

ORDER OF RAILWAY CONDUCTORS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 12.—The grand division of the Order of Railway Conductors is holding its nineteenth annual session in this city. Twenty-one new divisions have been formed since the last annual meeting and 2386 new members have been added to the order. The total membership is 10,300. A bill was presented providing for licensing railroad engineers and conductors and a resolution appointing a committee to secure congressional action on the bill was passed.

DISAPPOINTED BY PATTI.

NEW YORK, May 12.—At 8 o'clock last night the entrance to the Metropolitan opera house was literally packed with disappointed holders of tickets to Patti's special performance of "Lucia di Lammermoor." A majority of them had not seen the announcement of the prima donna's indisposition in the evening papers. It was announced that Patti's indisposition was slight, but nevertheless she would not sing till Friday. She leaves for Europe Saturday.

SIGNED BY GOV HILL.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Gov Hill signed the music and bar bill yesterday. The law goes into effect immediately. It empowers the mayor of New York to grant special licenses to proprietors of concert halls and beer gardens now holding theatrical and regular excise licenses, and it allows them to sell beer, wine and liquor while giving instrumental or vocal concerts, provided that no girl or woman is employed to serve the bar.

NO STATEMENT TO MAKE.

NEW YORK, May 12.—President Houston of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company declines to make any statement in reply to Henry Hart's circular. He asserts that personally he never solicited any proxies to secure his re-election and that all the proxies that have been received in answer to the resolutions passed by the directors have been turned over to the secretary of the company.

THE WOOL GROWERS.

ST LOUIS, March 12.—The convention of the International Sheep Shearers and Wool Growers met at the Cotton Compress Company's warehouse to-day to view an exhibition and to assist in the shearing of sheep, from which they were to judge on the prizes to be awarded to-morrow. There are about 1_5 entries from all parts of the country and all breeds of sheep are represented.

ORDERED TO STOP WORK.

CHICAGO, May 12.—All members of the Builders' and Traders' exchange have been ordered by the executive committee of that organization to stop work immediately. Members of the organization are not only builders but manufacturers of all kinds of building material. It is estimated that 40,000 men may be affected by the order and that 15,000 will be idle by night.

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1887.

PATERNAL GOVERNMENT.

W. Carey Johnson asks:

If the state may not prohibit entirely, how may it impose a high license which practically is half or three quarters or entire prohibition, according to the figure required? You and I would not disagree, you see, about the state being "paternal" in many things. We would agree that the state may prohibit the opium traffic, the carrying of concealed weapons, the importation of rags from an infected district, the sale of dynamite except by persons specially licensed, or the erection of wooden buildings in a great city.

THE OREGONIAN has never argued that the "state may not prohibit;" it has simply argued that it was pernicious policy for the state to attempt to "prohibit" when practical experiment had invariably proved that prohibition in the matter of the liquor traffic was ineffectual compared with the results of restriction and regulation. The legal right of the state to prohibit is as clear as the right to restrict and regulate, but the policy of prohibition is condemned by its consequences; it is no mere question of the constitutional right of a state to prohibit, it is simply a question of wise policy. Measured by its results, and tested in this way, prohibition is impolitic, because it is ineffective compared with regulation in shape of high liquor tax. There is no more sense in pleading that because the state can constitutionally and lawfully prohibit, it therefore should prohibit, than there is in pleading that because a man can lawfully light his cigar with five-dollar greenbacks, he therefore is justified in setting this pernicious example of public extravagance.

The question between prohibition and liquor tax has never been argued by THE OREGONIAN on any less broad ground than pleading the common-sense obligation of the state not to do a foolish thing, because its legal and constitutional right to do so was not open to debate. A man has a legal right to pluck out his beard by the roots or to dye his hair green, but the exercise of this right would not secure for him many admirers or imitators among his fellow citizens.

THE OREGONIAN further does not agree with Mr. Johnson's definition of paternal government, when he names the absolute prohibition of the liquor traffic as identical with his illustrations of prohibition in other matters. The state does not prohibit the opium traffic; it regulates and restricts it within certain limits; the state does not say that no man shall have opium or use opium at his own discretion except on a doctor's order presented to the state drug store, but it does say under the prohibitory liquor law that no man shall legally buy a glass of wine except on a doctor's order presented to the state rum shop. The state does not prohibit the purchase and use of a pistol, but only the carrying of a concealed weapon that implies a willingness and preparation to break the peace in behalf of private vengeance rather than invoke the protection of the law. The state does not prohibit the rag business; it only prohibits the importation of rags that are presumably infected with the seeds of a dread disease. It does not prohibit the sale of dynamite or gunpowder; it only says everybody shall not sell these articles, and that no man shall sell them to all persons without discrimination as to age and intelligence. The state does not absolutely prohibit the erection of wooden buildings, except under certain circumstances where the erection of such buildings would be dangerous to the security of public property against destructive fires.

The illustrations Mr. Johnson gives of prohibition are illustrations rather of regulation by restriction; but if we suppose they were all illustrations of absolute prohibition, they are not germane to this discussion at all, for it is not the theoretical right but the practical wisdom of prohibition that is the subject for consideration. Every experiment of legislation must stand or fall by its record. Experience, and nothing but experience, instructs society whether a social evil, near or remote, can be best dealt with by the policy of extirpation or of regulation. that smuggling; that the manufacture of illicit whisky is a crime against the state, and yet experience taught France and taught our government that an excessive penalty for smuggling and the manufacture of illicit whisky only served to increase the evil we sought to suppress. France once placed an enormous duty on certain articles, and the result was that smuggling frightfully increased and the government net revenue from the customs decreased. Why? Because the duty was so excessive that it amounted practically to offering a premium for smuggling. It was a bid for crime. A moderate duty could have been collected, but when the duty was so enormous in its attempt to be prohibitory that the profits of outwitting the revenue officers were enormous, why then the whole people turned smugglers, because they were tempted to take extraordinary risks for the chance of extraordinary profits. If ten contraband cargoes were seized four lucky trips would still leave a handsome profit. So in our own country, when we taxed whisky $2 the gallon, everybody turned whisky thief because the profits of evasion of the duty and outwitting the revenue officers were so enormous as to tempt people to lawlessness. The excessive tax that was intended to give the government an enormous revenue failed of its purpose. The revenue expenses were enormously increased, but the net revenue fell off greatly and illicit whisky multiplied all over the land. The government cried a halt; dropped the tax from $2 per gallon to 50 cents per gallon; the revenue increased and illicit whisky decreased. Why? Because thousands of men who would turn whisky thief when every gallon of contraband marketed saved $2 tax would not take the same risk to reputation and liberty when the tax was 50 cents per gallon.

This illustrates how easy it is for a state to overleap itself when it assumes to deal with social evils: excessive duties intended to increase the revenue defeated their purpose, increased the evil and reduced the revenue, while moderate measures increased the revenue and reduced the evil. And so prohibition, by attempting the impracticable, has always defeated its purpose; for open bars it substitutes the worse evil of secret bars, and instead of prohibition ending in the extirpation of the liquor traffic it ends in an increased number of rum shops; it replaces regulation with its revenue from the liquor tax by the sale of rum that is freer and fouler just in proportion as it is forced to become secret.

Finally the prohibition of the use of wine and beer as a beverage to all men because some men or many men get drunk is about as absurd as it would be to prohibit a man from planting a grape vine for its grapes or a hop vine for its hops because grapes can be made into wine and hops can be made the basis of beer. Society can hold men responsible for the consequences of their evil habits in the shape of outrages on its peace and order; it can teach them wise methods of life and diet, but society cannot by law stamp out suicide by rum, rope, dagger, water, prussic acid or pistol: it can teach the best way; it can punish those who walk the worst way, but it cannot subject the wise and decent to disabilities for the acts of the unwise and indecent. Society can punish a man for attempting suicide, but it cannot indict, try and sentence to exile all the instruments of self-destruction; it can punish a man for the outrages on public peace and safety he may commit when intoxicated, but it cannot spill every sober man's glass of wine or beer, because he has a drunken neighbor. Society can perhaps persuade the sober to make an important sacrifice for the sake of example to the inebriate, but society cannot hope to club mankind into such a surrender. Granting that 60,000 persons annually die prematurely because of rum it does not follow that 60,000,000 of people can be forced into total abstinence under law, or sobered by statute, any more than it follows that the world can be expected to stop money getting because the love of money is the root of all evil in many minds, landing as many men in prison for breach of trust, theft, swindling, etc., as rum plants in the penitentiary and in dishonored graves.

San Francisco is going to work industriously in the matter of public improvements. The great city hall is at last to be finished, a system of water works owned by the city is to be created and the city is to be provided with an efficient sewerage system. Portland would do well to follow her example. We have the water works already, but an enlarged and improved sewerage system is greatly needed and a city hall will soon be a necessity. The various city officers are now ill housed and scattered and our city jail is a positive discredit.

We are told that there is likely to be a rush of miners and speculators to the Cœur d'Alene mines, and wish to interpose a word of caution. Cœur d'Alene is not a poor-man's district. The mines are of the kind which require heavy capital for development, and afford only laborer's wages for miners. For a poor man there is not one chance in ten thousand of making a fortune or even of making more than can be secured by industry at home.

Every district in California exalts itself above every other section. At Los Angeles the hotel proprietors invariably charge more for the Reislings and Zinfandels made in Los Angeles than for superior wines of the same general kind produced in Sonoma and Napa.

At a meeting of the committee of fifteen yesterday immediate charge of the water works was given to Messrs. Henry Failing, Thomas M. Richardson and L. Fleischner. The cost of superintendence was wisely reduced from $100 to $250 per month.

Eighty thousand acres of state land has been sold since February 1 to four hundred actual settlers. Not a bad showing.

The recent rich discoveries at Cœur d'Alene afford a new reason why the Columbia river should be opened.

WATER COMMITTEE MEETING

A Sub-Committee Elected and Engineer Appointed by Resolution.

Considerable Business Transacted—Several Reports Submitted—Claims Audited—Relieved from Duty.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock a special meeting of the Portland water committee was held in the parlor of Ladd's bank. The following members were present: Henry Failing, L. Fleischner, C. H. Lewis, W. K. Smith, T. M. Richardson, John Gates, J. Loewenberg, Frank Dekum, W. S. Ladd. Mr. Philip C. Schuyler, the clerk, was in attendance. President Failing called the committee to order, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

CLAIMS AUDITED.

The following claims against the committee were read and ordered paid: E. B. Schwab & Bro., $8 75; Geo. W. McBride, $275.

AMICABLE SETTLEMENT.

Mr. Failing, the president, said before coming to the meeting he had been handed the following communication by Mr. Struble:

PORTLAND, May 4.

To the Portland Water Committee: Gentlemen—The directors of this company preferring an amicable settlement of the accounts and claims against you instead of litigation, authorize me to signify to you their willingness to submit to your further demands for reductions claimed by you. These further concessions are as follows: The amount of bill for transportation of 288 tons of fuel from Portland to pumping station, $200 37; the amount of bill of material purchased for repairing broken furnace, $13 50; total, $213 87. These items comprise the sum total of your objections upon our bills rendered and all are as above conceded for the reason above specified. Two thousand five hundred dollars was as per agreement of December 15, 1886, due this company on the 1st day of February last, and upon which they are justly entitled to interest until paid. They also leave the payment of this last item for the same reason to your option to allow it or not. Yours respectfully,

THE PORTLAND WATER CO.
H. C. LEONARD, Secretary.

The above communication was referred to the auditing committee, and two enclosed claims were ordered paid.

P. & W. V. RAILWAY COMPANY'S PETITION.

The secretary read the following report from the superintendent and engineer:

PORTLAND, May 11.

To the Portland Water Company:—Gentlemen: In accordance with your instructions herewith, in the request of the Portland and Willamette Valley Railway Company for a right of way through the land adjacent to the Palatine pump station.

The location is unobjectionable except that it clears the corner of the engineer's house by only twenty feet. The chief engineer of the railway company, Mr. Hawgood states that this interval cannot be increased by more than ten or fifteen feet at the most and without a considerable expense and a very objectionable curvature in the alignment and on this point after inspecting the ground and maps I concur with him.

The length of line on the city property is 1010 feet. There is no room for a siding between the main track and the engineer's house, and on the other extremity of the land there is a high trestle about 120 feet in length on which the engineer would not be willing to recommend the extension of a switch siding.

Under these conditions, and taking into consideration the space required for the switch and turn out, standing room could not be provided on the city land for more than twenty-two cars. But if it is proposed to unload coal or wood by means of a chute through the top of the coal house half of the siding must be used to contain the cars moved forward after unloading, and not more than ten cars could be handled to advantage for unloading coal and wood.

As a condition to the grant of a right of way the railroad company should be required to make and maintain a crossing for the way from the macadamized road to the engineer's house, and to cross the water pipe by a trestle or open way. Respectfully submitted.

ISAAC W. SMITH.

On motion of W. S. Ladd the communication was laid on the table pending the opinion of the city attorney in reference to the matter.

ABOUT CONNECTING MAINS.

The following report was read from the engineer:

PORTLAND, May 9, 1887.

To the Water Committee:—Gentlemen: I submit the following report in relation to the communication from the board of fire commissioners, asking that a connection be made between the Front street mains of the city water works and the Hydraulic Elevator Company:

It is stated that within a recent period it has been necessary to shut down the pumps of the elevator company for eight hours, and to provide against the great loss which would be incurred by such a contingency during the progress of a fire, it is asked that the elevator main to which the hydrants are attached should be connected with the city mains.

Along Front street as far north as E street the city has two pipes, the larger of which is used only for elevators, and has the capacity to furnish a hydrant pressure of sixty five pounds to the square inch. But as there are no "Ts" in this pipe the attachment of hydrant connections would be attended with a considerable expense and inconvenience, and from E to M street there is no pipe.

The elevator company have a main extending from Market street to M, with branches to First, and supply by contract the water to fifty hydrants on Front and First streets. Along these streets there are but few cisterns, and a failure of the pump during the progress of a fire might be attended with great loss to the city. The danger of which could be averted at a small expense by cross pipes connecting the two mains, and controlled by gates.

But on the exercise of the contract with the Hydraulic Water Company provisions must be made for a fire service along First street, either by the purchase at a consideration of hydrants with the city mains and the extension of a pipe from E to M street, or by the purchase of the mains and the hydrants of the elevator company, and if there is immediate need of providing against a possible failure of the elevator pumps, it is to be considered whether this should be done by connecting the two mains in the manner proposed, or by putting in new hydrants in connection with the city mains.

As there is a possible danger to property, which may be avoided by connecting the two mains, without prejudice to the future action of the committee, I am of the opinion that the request of the commissioners should be granted if they will agree to pay the expenses. Respectfully submitted.

ISAAC W. SMITH.

After a very long discussion of this matter Mr. Ladd moved that the communication be laid on the table for the present, or until such time as Mr. Smith, the engineer, has time in which to prepare a report that should embody the estimate of the cost of making the improvements suggested in the communication, and also as to the size of the pipe, etc. The motion prevailed.

SIXTH STREET PETITION.

A report was received from Engineer Smith, in regard to the petition signed by residents of South Sixth street, in relation to a water supply from the reservoir to Sheridan street. This report was read and laid on the table and no action taken, as another report, submitted by the engineer in relation to high and low water service, covered the matter.

HIGH AND LOW SERVICE.

The following report was received from Engineer Smith in reference to the high and low water service:

In the absence of Mr. Corbett, to whom the matter was referred, I submit the following summary of the points mentioned in our conversations in relation to the requirements for a high service system in the city of Portland:

On the large map in the office the elevations above the city base, which is twenty feet below the level of Front street, are shown by contour lines at vertical intervals of fifty feet.

The low service reservoir on Sixth and Lincoln streets is 170 feet above the city base, and supplies the portions of the city below the 100-foot contour with a pressure which will be sufficient for domestic use when the measures now in course of execution shall have been completed.

The high service reservoir on Eighth street is 270 feet above the base, and contains from 200,000 to 300,000 gallons. The capacity of the high service pump which raises the water from the low to the high service reservoir is about 500,000 gallons a day, but on account of the small six and four-inch force and supply mains it will not deliver more than 200,000 gallons at a distance of a mile from the reservoir and with a pressure suitable for domestic service at a greater elevation than 150 feet above the city base.

The districts to be supplied from the high service are narrow, but they extend from the southerly to the northern limits of the city, a distance of over four miles by the lines of the pipes, and as the engine house is small and the boiler insufficient even for the present limited delivery, a new house, pump and boilers will be required should the system be extended beyond the present limits.

At the old pumping station at the foot of Lincoln street there are two pumps of 1,750,000 gallons capacity, with one boiler, but as these are all that stand in the way of a water famine in case of a break in the thirty-inch main from Palatine hill, and as the small pump is old and not in good condition, I am of the opinion that it would be best to purchase a new pump.

In devising a new high service system I understand that the possibility of the introduction of a water supply from Bull Run is to be taken into consideration. The water from that source would be delivered into a reservoir in the City park at an elevation of 260 feet above the city base, but as this would be too high for the low service and too low for the high, it was proposed to take the low service supply from a tank near the reservoir and sixty feet below, and to utilize the fall to drive a hydraulic high service pump.

In case of a break in the Bull Run main the Palatine hill pump would supply the low service, and in the same contingency the high service steam pump now under consideration should be of sufficient capacity to take the place of the hydraulic pumps, and the mains should be so located that they could be used with either.

I recommend a pump with a capacity to raise 1,000,000 gallons in 24 hours to an elevation of 150 feet, or to 320 feet above the city base, through thirteen miles of a twelve-inch pipe, which is about the distance from the Sixth street reservoir to the City park.

This pipe is to be laid from the Sixth street reservoir along Seventh to Hall street, thence along Hall to Eighth street, where it would connect with the present high service pipes, thence along Eighth street to Jefferson street, connecting with the five four-inch pipes crossing that street, thence along Jefferson street to King street, where a ten-inch branch should diverge to supply Johnson's addition and Twentieth, Twenty-first, Twenty-second and Twenty-third streets, should go up J street and thence along Jefferson street to the City park.

The main from King street to the City park along Jefferson street would not be necessary until the introduction of a supply from Bull Run. For the city south of the Sixth street reservoir a ten-inch main should be laid, say for present use, a half mile in length.

For present purposes the supply could be delivered by direct pressure in connection with the Eighth street high service reservoir, which could be used for a night delivery to the extent of two or three hundred thousand gallons.

The engine house and boilers should be adapted for the introduction of a second pump in the future, when more than a million gallons a day will be required. To supply the city north, only as far as J street, including Johnson's and King's additions and from Twentieth to Twenty-third street, south of J street, and also the portions of the city a half-mile south of the Sixth street reservoir, I make the following estimate cost, which does not include the smaller distribution pipes:

Engine house and foundations	$ 5,000
Pump and boiler in place	8,000
One and a quarter miles 12-inch pipe	17,500
One and a quarter miles 10-inch pipe	12,500
Total	$43,000

In this estimate I have estimated the pipe at $52 50 per ton delivered and have included the cost of lead, gates, labor of laying and superintendence.

Some discussion followed the reading of the above report, when the matter was disposed of by authorizing the engineer to make a report as to the expediency of extending the service suggested in his communication.

SUB-COMMITTEE APPOINTED.

The following preamble and resolutions were presented, and after a discussion, during which most of the members present freely expressed their views, adopted:

WHEREAS, In the opinion of this committee further construction and operation of the works recently purchased can be best and most economically administered by the appointment of a superintendent competent to supervise construction and take charge of the operating department of the water supply, and by dividing the work of construction and operating between separate sub-committees; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a superintendent be appointed at a monthly salary of $250, who shall hold his position at the pleasure of the committee, and who shall perform such duties pertaining to both engineering and operating the works as may hereafter be prescribed by this committee or sub-committee.

Resolved, That the existing sub-committee be retained and be hereafter styled "sub-committee on construction," to which committee shall be referred all matters pertaining to water rights, rights of way and construction of extensions or additions.

Resolved, That a sub-committee of three in number be appointed, to be styled the "sub-committee on water works," which committee shall have immediate supervision of the water works purchased from the Portland Water Company, with authority to make or authorize all necessary purchases, employ labor, audit bills and pay the same, reporting to this committee at each monthly meeting a statement of revenue and expenditures. Said sub-committee on water works shall frame necessary rules and regulations and submit the same to this committee for approval, and when so approved shall report to the committee from time to time the number, names and pay of all persons steadily employed.

Said sub-committee shall also have power to prescribe the duties of the superintendent so far as they relate to the operation of the works, subject to the approval of this committee.

THE COMMITTEE NAMED.

In accordance with the provisions of the resolutions Mr. Ladd moved that the following gentlemen be elected as members of the sub-committee: Henry Failing, T. M. Richardson and L. Fleischner. The motion prevailed and the persons named were unanimously elected.

SUPERINTENDENT AND ENGINEER.

It was moved and carried that Mr. Isaac W. Smith (the present superintendent and engineer) be appointed to the position mentioned in the resolutions, at the salary stated, and under the conditions therein expressed. Both Mr. Fleischner and Mr. Loewenberg stated to the committee that they had consulted with Mr. Smith in regard to his acceptance of the position specified in the resolution, for a rate of compensation lower than he is now receiving; that after a long consultation he had expressed a willingness to accept the position of superintendent and engineer at a salary of $250 per month. The motion which appointed Mr. Smith to that position included the expressed condition that the date of the appointment was fixed at May 1, or, in other words, that he should commence drawing his salary as fixed in the resolution on the first day of the present month.

Mr. Fleischner having been elected a member of the sub-committee, asked to be relieved from serving on the old sub-committee, as he could not conveniently attend to all the duties which would thus be imposed. His request was complied with, and Mr. John Gates was appointed to fill the place heretofore occupied by Mr. Fleischner. On motion adjourned.

FROM EX-SENATOR AL DAGGETT.

The Hon. Albert Daggett, writing from the senate chamber, Albany, New York, says:

I have used Allcock's Porous Plasters for the past ten years with marked results. I have found them specially effective when depleted and worn out from weeks of incessant labors in political campaigns; the application of them to my chest and spine gave me great relief when my voice had become hoarse and worn down from speaking in the open air. They seemed to act as a tonic to the whole system, curing the soreness consequent from over-exertion and restoring the tone of the system more readily than any remedy I have ever found. I have also used them for rheumatism with very beneficial results.

MARRIED.

May 12, at St. [illegible] chapel, by Rev. John Rosenberg, James N. Allen, 1st Lieut. 2d cavalry, U. S. A., and Miss Susan Whalley, daughter of Mr. J. W. Whalley, of Portland.

DIED.

IS IT THE RIGHT OLSEN?

A CALIFORNIA MURDERER SAID TO HAVE BEEN SEEN IN PORTLAND

Pete Olsen the murderer of Mrs Lyons at Napa, California and for whom a reward of $300 has been offered is said to have been seen in Portland [illegible] days ago Report is that Olsen was recently [illegible] near The Dalles and on it getting [illegible] for him in that section he took the back [illegible] and came here The persons who claim to have met and talked with Olsen aver that they knew him personally for years and that he has [illegible] before and at one time worked [illegible] Astoria The Pete Olsen who was [illegible] two days ago, when questioned as to his whereabouts from the time he was last in this city said he was working in the country about [illegible] away and had just come in on a visit. Whether he is the Pete Olsen wanted or not is a question. Those who seen him and claim to know [illegible] the answers in appearance exactly [illegible] description published of Pete Olsen the Napa murderer has the scar of the face mentioned and the slow slouchy walk The man here referred to recognized the name of Pete Olsen when [illegible] He visited several saloons where he is [illegible] and took a drink or two but acted as if he was downhearted and not in his usual cheerful mood. Olsen, when recognized in one place left in a very hurried manner He was attired in a gray suit of clothes The police were notified but as yet nothing has come of the case Parties anxious to secure the reward should make sure that this Pete Olsen is the man wanted before they attempt to arrest him and so avoid a recurrence of the fatal mistake made by amateur detectives in California a few days since

[illegible] Dr. [illegible] P [illegible] H W [illegible] Forbes in the [illegible] Ward [illegible] elected [illegible] Fifth Ward [illegible] The council will appoint judges and clerks at the next meeting or the one following With a good ticket as [illegible] there will be no time lost by having the primaries a week before election but as another remarks it will be hard on candidates as it will give the strikers a good chance to worry them The candidate who is elected says another is one who is not generally known and who is nominated just before election so as not to give any one time to find out anything bad about him

AFRAID OF HIGH WATER —The plans and specifications of the Tanner creek culvert are now on exhibition at the office of the auditor and clerk Quite a number of persons were perusing them yesterday and the probability is that there will be a large number of bids for the work The large colored plan of the culvert showing the elevation of the ground through which it runs and the channel of the creek which it crosses in several places looks like a chart of the bottom of the Atlantic ocean or the right of way of a transcontinental railroad Among those who examined it yesterday was a gentleman from the East who has had considerable experience in such works The end of the culvert is at low water mark in the river and he judging from what he has seen of our climate of late was much afraid that the river would not get down to low water mark this summer and consequently the contractor for the culvert would be obliged to build a cofferdam around the mouth of it and pump the water out He will have a different opinion of the river and the climate by next August

KLEPTOMANIAC —Tuesday Grace Buckley a young girl about 1[illegible] years of age was arrested and locked up in one of the dark cells of the city jail pending further developments no charge having been entered against her on the books The girl at one time worked as a servant in the house of Walter Marston an insurance agent and subsequently for Mrs J P Howe Both parties at various times missed articles of value, including jewelry clothing and so on Several days ago Mrs Howe took occasion to have the girl's trunk searched when she discovered some of her own property and a portion of what was stolen from Mrs Marston The girl is evidently a kleptomaniac several of whom however, are said to be in Portland as numerous people can testify Although known as Grace, letters are known to have been sent to her, headed Dear Nellie When questioned at the police station she refused to tell her name or to talk about the case whatever The police are engaged in investigating it

BEEF SUPPLIES —Beef has been growing scarcer and scarcer of late but the scarcity is not likely to continue much longer Seven carloads of steers came down from White Bluffs range yesterday and very good beef they were They are not so fat as some stall fed beef which has been in market but will be better eating beef—more juicy and tender Three or four car loads of stall fed cattle are expected here from Pocatello 800 miles east to day or to morrow This is a long distance to go for beef and it is not probable any more will be brought from there Mr William Savage who has some cattle on White Bluffs range, says the grass is better there this season than any other place in this region He expects that the mines of Cœur d'Alene will furnish a great market for beef in the future Mr A H Johnson has ordered a rodeo on his Prineville range and will drive 1000 head of cattle from there to White Bluffs Other ranges will soon be sending along beef, and then the scarcity will be at an end

BIRD'S EYE VIEW OF OREGON —The West Shore has issued as a supplement to the May number a colored lithographic bird's eye view of Oregon a part of Washington and the western line of Idaho It is a novel production and shows at a glance the topography of this section of the United States There is shown all the mountain ranges rivers and streams snow peaks railroads cities and towns and the lakes of southeastern Oregon The Pacific ocean and the entrance of the Columbia are in the foreground In the distance the Wood river region of Idaho is shown and to the north the view extends to the Cœur d'Alene mines One look at the lithograph will give a stranger a better idea of the lay of the land than studying an ordinary map for a week and even old residents are likely to learn something new of the country they live in

NOT AN ELOPEMENT —The Chinaman reported by parties arriving on the Pacific express Wednesday as having eloped with a white woman from Spokane Falls called at THE OREGONIAN office yesterday to explain the matter He is not a gambler but an interpreter named Charles Cumsin who had been up to Spokane Falls to attend to some legal business there The woman in question was a waiter at the hotel where he boarded and he became acquainted with her and as she happened accidentally to come to Portland on the same train that he did he was talking to her on the way and the trainmen came to the conclusion that they were traveling together Cumsin being only half Chinese and dressing in American style looks very little like a Chinaman and as he was civil and well behaved the waiter girl probably thought no harm of talking to him

BIG JUMPS —M'lle Rhea the celebrated French actress who appears at the New Market for a short season on Tuesday May 31 played Little Rock Ark on the 4th inst. jumping from there to Winnipeg where she plays this week Next week and week after with the exception of the time consumed in travel she plays the Montana circuit then direct from Butte to Portland Her manager writes that he paid [illegible] or $2000 for railroad tickets last week which includes return fares over the Northern Pacific railway Her company is a large one and the same that has supported her during the past season Rhea is one of the few great attractions that have favored Oregon with a visit and like Emma Abbott and Lawrence Barrett will undoubtedly leave Portland with many pleasant remembrances

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS —As one passes along Fifth street in East Portland between [illegible] and [illegible] streets he finds himself confronted by a little village of tents It is the Seventh Day Adventists campmeeting and although it is nearly a week in advance of their regular services all is bustle and activity in the preparation for their annual gathering Two large tents for public meetings and some thirty for family and other purposes are already pitched The family tents are arranged in a semi circle with the public tents in the front which gives a neat and orderly appearance Quite a number are already encamped on the ground in readiness to receive the instruction given to workers by the [illegible] in attendance from abroad This [illegible] constitutes the [illegible] of the present week

WILL OPEN THE STEMWINDER —Mr Van B Delashmutt [illegible] busy yesterday buying [illegible] sledges and drills blasting powder and [illegible] a blacksmith outfit and everything [illegible] [illegible]

[illegible] HAY —Some forty tons of hay [illegible] here from [illegible] Part of it is [illegible] and the remainder is wheat hay which brings [illegible] Timothy hay is very scarce and [illegible] [illegible] up their meadows Last winter more hay than usual was [illegible] and the [illegible] scarcity of the article This is not likely to occur again and it certainly should not

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS —Postmaster [illegible] is in receipt of numerous letters from parties desiring to know when the civil service board of examiners will meet here He cannot answer all these letters and desires THE OREGONIAN to say that he does not expect it will meet for several months He has no idea what instructions will be forwarded in regard to the matter but wishes it understood that printed forms of questions will be sent out which applicants must fill and which will then be returned He can give no information as to the nature of the questions which will be given out Due notice of the session of the board will be given by THE OREGONIAN

RELEASED FROM CUSTODY —John Faulls who was arrested in conjunction with Lizzie Faulls Florence Fallon Al Slader and May Dorner, was yesterday released from the county jail on the ground that the evidence was not sufficient to convict The indictment against May Dorner was also dismissed for the same reason but virtually because she turned state's evidence Slader was convicted and is already in the penitentiary serving out his sentence Florence Fallon and Lizzie Faulls will be taken up to-day to serve a year each There was no evidence which in any way implicated Faulls in the transaction

FALL IN POTATOES —The high price paid for potatoes for the past few days caused a great influx of those esculents yesterday Long rows of farm wagons stood in front of commission merchants loaded with Garnet Chiles principally The farmers had rather elevated ideas about prices in the forenoon but when so many potatoes were seen the price declined and instead of getting a little over two cents per pound they got a little under However they have little cause for complaint for there are not many ways by which a farmer can get rich faster than by raising potatoes for two cents per pound.

SHE WOULD NOT COME —Rudolph Hoesly was yesterday granted a divorce from Catherine Hoesly on the ground of desertion They were married in Switzerland in 1868 Plaintiff alleges that in 1883 he came to Oregon from Wisconsin and defendant refused to accompany him The couple have seven children now living aged respectively 24 27 20 33 30 28 and 14 years. Mr Hoesly testified before the referee that after coming to Oregon he sent his wife $1000 on her agreeing to join him here and that she received the money, but still remained in Wisconsin

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF —The jury in the case of H P Gregory vs. the North Pacific Lumber and Manufacturing Company, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $127 The suit was to recover $[illegible]. Five days' time has been granted to file a motion for a new trial.

[illegible] —G W Hen[illegible] [illegible] has been [illegible] [illegible]

NEW YORK TOURISTS —A party of New York [illegible] Mr I H R[illegible] and wife and Mr A A Will [illegible] from San Francisco Mr Will is [illegible] of the [illegible] arrived here yesterday and the party will leave [illegible] the Sound to-day [illegible] return to Portland Sunday next and on Tuesday [illegible] will leave for the East over the Northern Pacific

UNITARIAN CHURCH EXCURSION —To-morrow the Unitarian church and Sunday school will give their annual summer festival The splendid steamer Wide West has been engaged and will leave Ash street wharf at [illegible] A M steaming to La Camas falls There will be dancing on the grounds Should the day be fine the excursion will be a success because the ladies of the Unitarian church always make a success out of everything they undertake in a social way

I O O F MATTERS —A convention of delegates from the various Rebekah degree lodges I O O F in this state will be held in Odd Fellows' temple on Monday evening next at 7 30 o'clock The object is to organize a state convention and discuss the interests of this branch of Odd Fellowship The grand encampment I O O F meets in East Portland on Monday evening May 16 and the grand lodge on Tuesday May 1[illegible] at 10 A M

DATE CHANGED —The grand concert for the relief of the Nanaimo sufferers to be given by the Arion Club and Orchestral Union at the New Market theater, will take place Thursday evening next instead of Tuesday Manager Howe having received word by telegram yesterday of another engagement for Tuesday evening The general rehearsal will be held Wednesday instead of Tuesday evening Orchestral Union rehearsal Tuesday as announced

SLIGHT FIRE —An alarm was turned in by policeman Hickey from box 13 at 7 o'clock last evening for a fire at No 48 Washington street occupied by W W Green The fire is supposed to have caught from a lamp in an upstairs room occupied by a lodger The department was promptly on hand and the flames were soon extinguished The loss will probably not exceed $100 The building is owned by Mr Henry Failing and is fully insured

COMMITTED TO THE ASYLUM —Philomena Laurent aged 50 years and wife of Frank Laurent of East Portland was examined by Drs Rafferty and Strong yesterday and ordered committed to the insane asylum at Salem She is a native of Bulgaria and has five children Mrs Laurent has been afflicted for almost a year She was taken up yesterday on the afternoon train It is believed she will recover

SERIOUS CHARGE —G M Simon a candy maker on Washington street and A Gaudron a neighbor have recently had some differences with one another resulting in Gaudron having Simon arrested in Justice Tuttle's court on a charge of threatening to kill The complaint cites that Simon said I'll break his neck I must kill him etc meaning Gaudron The case will be called to day for examination

HEAVY STORM —It is learned that a terrible windstorm visited the coast about Yaquina last Saturday Capt. The contracts for a mill for the Columbia River Paper Company to replace the one burned on the [illegible] of last November at La Camas were yesterday signed by J K Gill president and S Irwin secretary of the company

The brick work was awarded to Canute & Zanelle for [illegible] and the stone work at $[illegible] The carpenter work floor trusses for roof windows etc was awarded to Messrs S J Egbert [illegible] and [illegible] of La Camas for $1100 The roof of corrugated iron containing about 270 squares was awarded to J C Payer for $1685 The building is to be completed by July 1 and it is hoped that the manufacture of paper will be begun by August 1 The machine room will be 55x150 and the bleaching rooms and wood pulp mill 80x13 with two 12 foot stories The walls and floor of the lower story will be of stone and the upper story of brick As only the upper floor and the roof trusses will be of wood the building will be as nearly as possible fire proof and there will be no dry stock kept in it The building for rag picking and cutting 30x60 feet is of wood and is situated fifty feet from the main building The bleaching and washing of straw will be done in a separate building forty feet from the main building The mill will be fitted with the latest and most approved style of cement chloride vats and draining rooms a hydraulic elevator and all necessary labor saving appliances and will be equipped with an 84 inch Fourdrinier machine a 54 inch double cylinder and four wood pulp machines In addition to other precautions against fire perforated pipes will be stretched over each of the roof trusses which by turning a valve situated outside the building will thoroughly drench the wood work

DEMAND GOOD AND INCREASING

Some months ago a San Francisco man came here and opened a branch depot of the Fredericksburg Brewing Co of San Jose and soon after built on Eighth street north of Stark a bottling establishment for the purpose of putting up the beer of this brewing company Subsequently it fell into the hands of Mr E [illegible] O'Brien manager of L Martin & Co who was undecided for a time as to whether he would continue bottling the San Jose article having in view the idea of bottling local beer but finding he could do better in the matter of importing the Fredericksburg and realizing that a demand existed for it he renewed operations and now has the valuable services of Mr McMahon at the bottling depot whom we found yesterday busy in putting up cases and barrels for [illegible] to interior customers Meanwhile Charley Thompson had his elegant turn out at the door ready to be filled with baskets of the beer for delivery to families Charley is enthusiastic over the Fredericksburg [illegible] experience [illegible] a continuance of orders for this [illegible] beer Mr O'Brien will extend the bottling [illegible] in a few days so as to [illegible] the [illegible] increasing calls for the [illegible] which is even now [illegible] in demand [illegible] other beers brought to this market

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY!

$50 Down, Balance, $150, in Monthly Payments of $15 Each, without Interest.

This beautiful tract of land, consisting of 208 lots, is situated in the famous fruit growing district adjoining East Portland, one-half mile east of the city limits, on the extensively traveled Base Line road, also on the main line of the Mount Tabor & East Portland railway, and only five minutes' ride from the Morrison-street bridge This land is all level, cleared and in a high state of cultivation, with fruits and berries, such as apples, plums, prunes, cherries peaches, pears, etc., together with strawberries, blackberries, and, in fact, all the fruits and berries for which this favored section is noted

Situated as it is, away from the malarial district, it is entirely free from all miasmatic influences, and is destined to become with the rapidly increasing population of the two cities, what Berkeley and Alameda are to San Francisco—a place of beautiful homes

Through the completion of the Morrison street bridge

PARADISE SPRING FARM

Is made a delightful suburb to the city of Portland, and in less than six months passenger trains of the Mount Tabor & East Portland Railway Company will pass this property every half hour thus making it possible for the merchant, the mechanic and the laborer to do business in Portland and live in the most delightful of all its suburbs To the observing man we deem it unnecessary to enlarge or even to dwell upon the possibilities of Portland and its suburbs as compared with those of any other city, believing, as we do, that it is without a parallel in the United States. Although the city of Portland has not yet attained the average lifetime of man it ranks to-day in population as the forty fifth city in the Union, is the actual terminus of three transcontinental lines, has more wealth within its boundaries and a greater area of territory at its command than any other city of America.

Portland's position as a trade and travel center is as thoroughly defined on the Pacific coast as that of New York on the Atlantic, and it is safe to say that within ten years it will have a population of over 100,000 Already its residence capacity is taxed, and right here the question arises, Where will these newcomers seek homes? Will it be in the stifled precincts of a four story tenement house, such as is found in the dense, populated cities? Will it be on the rugged hills surrounding the city where land is already held at $8000 a block? Or will it be on the

BEAUTIFUL UNBROKEN PLAIN

Extending eastward from the river, on which is situated Paradise Spring Farm Land on either side of Paradise Spring Farm has sold as high as $1000 per acre, and the most inferior cannot be bought to-day for less than $1000, and that only in five and ten acre tracts, and yet we propose in this matter to give subscribers a chance to secure a regular lot, fifty feet by one hundred feet, at the same rates as sold per acre, besides making them a present of a new, handsome modern designed, hard finished house, all ready for occupancy These lots, 208 in number will be placed on the market at the reasonable price of $200 each, one-fourth of that sum to be paid at the time of subscription and the balance in monthly installments of $15 each, without interest on deferred payments As a further inducement to populate this beautiful section, we have now in course of erection six handsome, modern designed five and seven room houses, which are to be given away free to the purchasers of lots Under this arrangement six out of the 208 subscribers will secure a handsome house and lot worth $1400 each, for the small sum of $200, while the balance will have lots that cannot be purchased anywhere in the same locality for less than $300 each, and then only in acre tracts—a fact that precludes the possibility of purchase at all by men of limited means The award of the houses is to be made under the supervision of a committee of responsible and disinterested citizens, at some public hall to be agreed upon in Portland in June 1887

Parties at a distance can purchase under this plan of award as well as those in the city, it being specifically agreed on our part that every thing is to be just as represented

Remittances can be made to us by mail or express

METHOD OF SALE

These houses, six in number, together with the orchards and other improvements are to remain on the lots where they are at present situated and are included in the price paid for the lots ($200 each), to those who draw the fortunate numbers

In order that all buyers may have an equal chance in the drawing the following plan of award will be adopted The name of each subscriber will be placed on one slip of paper and a number of each lot, from 1 to 208 will be placed on another slip the two slips will be placed in separate boxes, and under the supervision of responsible and disinterested citizens will be drawn simultaneously The number drawn will designate the lot belonging to the subscriber whose name accompanies it Under this plan the names as well as the numbers will be placed in the separate boxes promiscuously thereby removing any possible advantage that one subscriber might have over another

The plats on file in our office, as well as a visit to the premises, will show on which lots the houses are located, but no one can tell who will receive the winning numbers until they have been drawn blindfolded from the box.

Each and every subscriber will receive a warranty deed to his lot, without any extra charge whatever

Remember that there are six elegant, modern design dwellings to be given away with these lots. Price, $200 each one-fourth down and the balance in installments of $15 a month, without interest.

On and after May 1 we will have an elegant four horse conveyance on hand to convey prospective purchasers to and from the premises free of charge

In order to accommodate those who cannot call during the day, our office will be open every evening (except Sunday) during the above sale, from 7 to 9

FROM SALEM.

Sales of State Lands—The Swamp Land Investigation, Etc.

SALEM, May 12.—Circuit court has been in session in Polk county this week. J. W. Delaney, charged with arson in setting fire to his own blacksmith shop at Monmouth two years ago, for the purpose of obtaining $300 insurance, has been acquitted. Young Thurman, son of a farmer living near Amity, has been indicted for horse stealing. It is reported that his two accomplices offer to turn state's evidence against him. Charges of selling liquor without license, against John D. Belt, of McCoy, were to be considered by the jury to-day. James K. Sears, who was instrumental in having Belt bound over, is one of the grand jurymen.

The clerk of the board of land commissioners, Napoleon Davis, states that since the legislature lowered the price of state lands to $1 25 per acre probably 400 applications for land have been filed. These average 200 acres apiece, so that as most of the applicants are intending bona fide settlers 80,000 acres of land have been settled on since February 1. Half of the settlers have secured clear titles by payment of cash for lands, while the remainder have obtained certificates of sale.

John D. Biles, of the O. R. & N. Company, arrived in the city to-night for the purpose of appraising the property of the company here preparatory to its being turned over to the Union Pacific.

SWAMP LANDS.

Alexander Sweek, of Canyon City, who will be appointed by Gov. Pennoyer as one of the swamp land agents, passed down to Portland to-day, where he will interview Gov. Pennoyer regarding his future plan of action. Mr. Sweek will probably be sent immediately to Lakeview, where he will work in conjunction with Mr. Shackleford. The second government agent appointed by Commissioner Sparks left Washington on the 10th inst. His colleague will be appointed upon his arrival and they will be dispatched by the governor to Eastern Oregon.

The authorities at the penitentiary are preparing for the reception of two female convicts who will be brought from Portland to-morrow. The women will occupy a room up-stairs during the daytime and at night a cell, the same as the remainder of the prisoners. The cell, however, is provided with a separate lock and the two females will be placed in night quarters after the rest of the prisoners have been secured.

SUPREME COURT.

SALEM, May 12.—The case of the state of Oregon resp. vs. Ilies Roberts app., on appeal from Multnomah county was argued and submitted to-day in the supreme court. The argument consumed both the morning and afternoon.

A grand coyote hunt, which will last several days began to-day on Mission bottom, about six miles from Salem. About thirty hunters and a multitude of dogs are engaged. So far only four coyotes have been killed.

THE SITUATION AT NANAIMO.

An Official Dispatch from the Managers of the Ill-Fated Mine.

NANAIMO, B. C., May 12.—There has been no change in the situation of affairs during the last forty-eight hours. Air has been guided toward the workings where the search for the remaining bodies will have to be made. The hazardous work of exploring the mine, for the purpose of recovering them, which hitherto has been carried on with noble assistance from other collieries, has now progressed so satisfactorily that we are able to continue it solely with our own employes, with the exception of one six hour shift, which is under the efficient control of Mr. Robt. Scott, assisted by three or four of our Wellington friends who are spared from the Wellington colliery by the kind permission of Mr. Bryden. Owing to the destruction of the fan, and consequent suspension of ventilation, work in the mine is now extremely hazardous, from the presence of explosive gas in large quantities, but notwithstanding the danger they incur, our officers and men face the situation without flinching. The igniting of the explosive gas (fire damp) would be followed by the formation of choke damp. To satisfy the great public interest displayed in the work of recovering the missing, you will receive daily an official telegram from the superintendent.

BURNED AT SEA.

The Ocean King, Abandoned, Sinks Near Cape Arago—The Crew Missing.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—The schooner Laura Madsen, which arrived at Umpqua, Oregon, May 10, reports seeing the ship Ocean King, May 8, thirty-five miles west of Cape Arago, on fire and abandoned. The Madsen lay by her until she sunk, at 6 P. M. The Ocean King was loaded with coal, bound from Nanaimo, B. C., to San Pedro. She was valued at $75,000, and was formerly owned in Boston, but was more recently owned in this city. Nothing is known regarding the crew.

BAKER-AINSWORTH.

The Wedding Celebrated at Rose Lawn—The Flowers—Etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—In a northeasterly direction from San Francisco, about nine miles distance therefrom, is Rose Lawn, home of Capt. J. C. Ainsworth. It is in a sightly spot, lying at the foot of the hilly range that forms a partial wall to a picturesque scene. Berkeley, seat of the university of California, aristocratic Piedmont, and Oakland proper almost enclose it, yet it is sufficiently removed from either and all to give the country surrounding it an almost rural appearance.

On his home and grounds the captain has spent much time and money, and one of the most attractive spots on the east side of San Francisco bay is the result. But however attractive Rose Lawn appears on ordinary occasions, it was made to appear doubly so this evening, in honor of the marriage of Miss Laura Ainsworth to Mr. John C. Baker, a merchant of Tacoma. The hour for the ceremony was 8:30, and by that time guests to the number of 150 to 200 had arrived.

Keeping time to the strains of music, the wedding party entered the reception room in the following order: Rev. Francis A. Horton of the First Presbyterian church of Oakland, and T. T. Dargie of the Oakland Tribune, who acted as best man, groom and Mrs. Capt. J. C. Ainsworth, Miss Daisy Ainsworth and Miss Florence Savier and Miss Dixey Thompson, Capt. J. C. Ainsworth and bride.

In order to keep the passageway clear, long ribbons, held by fairy dressed girls, had been stretched across the room.

The bridal party advanced to the further part of the room, where the bride and groom took their station at the place chosen for them. Over their heads hung long folds of white silk tulle, intertwined with smilax; white-winged doves were so arranged as to appear as though flying toward the couple to bring them joyous news. Behind the bride and groom were groups of statuary, set in among banks of flowers and palms and ferns, while at the sides, from the floor nearly to the ceiling, were pillars of Japanese snowballs.

It was in such a wealth of floral display that the bride and groom joined hands and listened to the reading of the form of the marriage service of the Presbyterian church, spoken by Rev. Dr. Horton. The vows were spoken, the ring was passed, and then the relatives and friends pressed forward to tender the usual congratulations.

After a time thus spent the bridal party and guests repaired to the dining-rooms, one room entire being set aside for the bridal party. Suspended over the table in this room were three gilded horseshoes. In the center of the table stood a massive vase of orchids and other rare flowers, sent by Mrs. A. K. P. Harmon, who, next to Capt. Ainsworth, owns the finest conservatory in the vicinity of Oakland. Near the table was a stand, on which was placed a slipper filled with orange blossoms, while on the bank on which the slipper stood was found strewn a carpet of rice.

Supper over, the bridal party and guests strolled through the different rooms, admiring the decorations, presents, etc. The latter were numerous and costly. The gift of Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Ainsworth was a house and lot in Tacoma. The floral decorations were especially worthy of note. The flowers were all from the captain's conservatory, and were arranged under direction of Miss Bates, of San Francisco, the same lady who had charge of the floral decorations for the late Alexander-Crocker wedding. The flowers were so chosen as to correspond with the prevailing tint of each room, a task not easy, but so well performed as to produce admirable effect.

The dresses of the bride and bridesmaids were very rich, and elicited many words of admiration.

The number of invitations issued was about 350. Among those invited from Portland were: Lieut. and Mrs. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Corbett, the Misses Failing, Mrs. H. D. Green, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Ladd, Carrie Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ladd, Miss Ada McCraken, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Savier, Mrs. P. Sutton, Miss Jeinne Sutton, Miss Ada Sutton, Judge and Mrs. George H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wygant, Miss Lou Wygant, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wyatt, the latter two of whom, and the Misses Savier, who acted as bridesmaids, being the only people present direct from Portland.

Among those from Tacoma were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Anderson, R. L. Albright, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Adams, C. P. Masterson, L. R. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Sprague and General and Mrs. Sprague.

Among others from different points were Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Baker, Rensselaer, Ind.; H. J. Crocker, Capt. and Mrs. R. R. Thompson, Miss Dixie Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Dell Linderman, of San Francisco; Prof. and Mrs. Hilgard, of the university of California.

To-morrow Mr. and Mrs. Baker will come over to this city, take quarters at the Palace hotel and remain there until next Wednesday, when they will leave overland for Tacoma, their future home.

ALASKA AS A PENAL COLONY.

A Member of the Prison Reform Association to make an Inspection.

LOS ANGELES, May 12.—Alonzo H. Webb, of New York city, a member of the United States Prison Reform Association, is here en route to Sitka, Alaska. He is the accredited commissioner of the association to inspect Alaska and report its adaptability for the purposes of a penal colony. Mr. Webb said to a reporter: "I intend looking over Alaska and reporting whether a penal colony could practically be made. If it can, a solution of a difficult problem—what shall be done with the rapidly growing criminal element?—will be reached. I earnestly hope I shall find Alaska suitable for such purpose. If I do, the association I represent will work vigorously to enlist support in transforming that territory into a government penal colony."

"You say the criminal element is constantly increasing?"

"I am sorry to say it is so. The reports that there is a lesser number of criminals in the country now than five years ago are without foundation. Something must be done. Nearly 74,000 are within penitentiary walls in this country. The prisons are overcrowded, and the younger or first beginners among criminals are not reformed by incarceration."

Mr. Webb will remain north probably three months.

TODHUNTER'S ASSIGNMENT.

The Trouble is only Temporary—Causes of the Embarrassment.

SACRAMENTO, May 12.—With regard to the business complications of W. B. Todhunter, of Devine & Todhunter, the great cattlemen of Southeastern Oregon, it was said to-day by a reliable person that they were probably precipitated by an action now pending in the Yolo superior court, in which Todhunter is defendant and Mrs. L. T. Fox, of San Francisco, plaintiff. About two years ago Todhunter sold a large stock ranch situated in Roop county, Nevada, for about $15,000. Subsequently L. T. Fox, a stock raiser, brought suit against Todhunter, claiming to be his partner, and therefore entitled to a share in the sale. Fox has since died. Todhunter's creditors then became alarmed and began to press him, with the result of his assignment. He has no property in this city outside of a few horses, but in Washington, Yolo county, where he resides with his family, he owns considerable property.

Much surprise is manifested here, as Todhunter's financial standing was unquestioned. It is known that he was victimized some time ago by cunning cattlemen to the extent of $14,000. He let them have several car loads of cattle on certain conditions, and the next thing he was acquainted with was the loss mentioned. It is said he is rather careless in business transactions, and is not a competent man to protect his vast interests.

His son, Wm. Todhunter, Jr., admits the truth of the assignment. He says that a number of his father's large business ventures turned out disastrously last year, whereupon his creditors clamored for their coin, and his father told them to take charge of his affairs and conduct them until they were satisfied. His entire possessions in Oregon, it is asserted, are worth $1,500,000.

Mr. Singletary, of San Jose, one of those to whom the assignment was made, passed through on the overland last night to Winnemucca to look out for Todhunter's interests.

Mr. Hays, of Oakland, says that the present embarrassment is only temporary, and that as soon as the creditors' claims have been satisfied the property will be reconveyed to Todhunter.

THE MEXICAN EARTHQUAKES.

A Dispatch from Gov. Torres, of Hermosillo—Details Still Meager.

NOGALES, May 12.—The following dispatch was received to-day from Gov. Torres:

HERMOSILLO, Mexico, May 12.

Further advices continue to arrive slowly from the districts of Montezuma and Arispe, the scene of the earthquake disaster on the 2d inst., but owing to the position of the districts, the latter of which is in the heart of the Sierra Madre range, full particulars as to the extent of the loss of life and property will not be known until the arrival of the scientific commission that has been dispatched to the scene by the state government.

A special officer whom Gov. Torres sent to the scene of the disaster from Ures, Sunday noon, returned to that place this morning with dispatches from the prefect of Montezuma to Gov. Torres, saying that whilst first reports, which were dispatched via Ures after the first shock were, in the excitement, exaggerated as to the number of lives lost, yet the damage and loss of life is appalling. The towns of Arispe and Oputo were completely destroyed; from 35 to 40 people were burned in the ruins, and nineteen were severely injured.

The towns of Granadas and Luasabas were greatly damaged. Whilst several were injured, no loss of life is reported. A number of surrounding mountain ranches, together with crops of the valleys, were consumed. Although water has risen and the earth opened at various points, no volcanoes are visible.

The district of Arispe, in northeastern Sonora, suffered badly. The valley of Fronteras was inundated by water, and nearly all the houses of Fronteras destroyed. Only one person was killed—a young girl—who was buried in the ruins of a falling house.

THE GRAPE CROP.

Indications of a Sharp Advance in the Prices of Wines.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—The Merchant to-morrow will say: "A sharp advance in the prices of wine is anticipated, owing to the small stock of old wine on hand, to the facility offered wine makers for storage and obtaining advances thereon, to the superior quality of the year's vintage, for which there have been inquiries from the East and Europe, to the effect of the late frosts, which will reduce the coming vintage in some of the large producing wine sections by one-third, and to arrangements recently completed for condensing which must relieve the market from any possibility of a surplus for many years to come." All these facts lead the Merchant to believe that prices will advance from 15 cents a gallon to as high as 25 and 30 cents a gallon. Sales have already been made at 18 cents.

OFFICIAL REPORTS.

State Viticultural Officer Wheeler to-day received reports from various districts relative to the damage to vines and grape crop by recent frosts. Reports from the Stockton, Santa Clara, San Joaquin and Livermore valleys indicate little or no damage. Those from Sonoma, Santa Rosa, Glen Ellen, Napa, St. Helena and Calistoga show that considerable damage has been done, and it is feared that the grape crop of these districts will be greatly lessened this year.

FROM SEATTLE.

A Frightful Fall—Work on the New Railroads—Etc.

SEATTLE, W. T., May 12.—About 2:30 o'clock this afternoon Frank Wallius, engineer on Surber's new pile driver, while at work on the piling for the Seattle & Eastern railway, in the rear of the Commercial mill, boring a hole in a timber for a drift bolt, he lost his balance in some way and fell, striking his head on a boom log. One of the workmen saw him sink and from the blood located the spot where he went down, and plunged in, succeeding in bring the injured man to the surface, when a number of men carried him up to the mill. The blood gushed from his ears, nose and mouth in a stream. A wagon was procured and the unfortunate man taken to his home. Wallius is a steady, sober man, and how he came to fall is a mystery. The top of the piling from where he fell was twenty feet from the water, being low tide.

Grading of the first ten-mile section from Smith's cove eastward, on the Seattle & Eastern railway, is nearly completed. The roadbed will be ready for the ties by the first of June. The contract called for the completion of this section by the 20th inst., but extremely bad weather has materially interfered with the work. The first lot of rails is now due via Cape Horn, and the arrival of the ship at Port Townsend is liable to be announced any time. The second section is well under way and pile driving along the water front from the cove toward Mill street is making rapid progress. A few calm, sunshiny days will make a great difference in the progress of work on the road.

Bids for clearing the right of way, grubbing and grading the roadbed for the Seattle & West Coast railway, from the point of intersection with the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern to Snohomish City, were to-day opened in the office of H. Crawford, Jr., president of the company. The contract was awarded to Earle & Co., who are now engaged on a similar job of thirty miles for the Seattle & Eastern. The distance to be cleared and graded is thirteen miles, and the contractors agree to have the roadbed ready for ties by September 15, 1887. They will employ fully 600 men in performing the work.

Articles were filed in the auditor's office yesterday incorporating the First Methodist Episcopal church of Seattle. The board of trustees named in the articles of incorporation are: Rufus Willard, J. R. Lewis, George B. Adair, A. B. Stewart, W. R. Brawley, W. V. Rinehart, B. L. Crockett, A. Mackintosh and D. E. Blaine.

The steamship Idaho arrived in port at 11:12 to-day from Alaska.

There were thirty transfers of real estate made yesterday.

ANOTHER BUDGET OF ITEMS.

SEATTLE, May 12.—At a special meeting of the city council to-day, Gardner Kellogg was declared elected, and appointed by the council chief of the fire department for the ensuing year.

Frank Whallen, employed by the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern railway as pile capper, fell from the platform on which he was standing. He went to the bottom of the bay, but was rescued by his companion, James Warren. His injuries are supposed to be fatal. He is 30 years old and has a wife and family.

The Seattle & West Coast railway, which is projected to connect with the Canadian Pacific, let a contract for the building of the division from Seattle to Snohomish City to Thomas Earle & Co., and this company immediately gave bonds to secure the completion of the work by September 15. The first cargo of steel rails is expected to arrive from England in a few days. The building of the road beyond Snohomish City will be pushed vigorously, surveyors being now in the field locating the line.

The construction department of the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern railway received orders to-night from New York to let the contract for another section of twenty miles as soon as the surveys can be completed. This division will complete the road to Snoqualmie pass.

FROM TACOMA.

Eastern and Western Washington to Unite in a Big Celebration.

TACOMA, W. T., May 12.—Gen. Sprague as president of the chamber of commerce, in company with the executive committee of the same, to-day waited upon the delegates to the grand lodge from Eastern Washington and extended to them and to their fellow citizens an urgent invitation to participate in a celebration of the coming Fourth of July, in commemoration of the completion of the Cascade branch uniting the two sections. Holmes, of Walla Walla, and Warner, of Colfax, responded in behalf of their respective districts, promising a hearty co-operation and a generous participation in the celebration. The switchback is expected to be completed in two weeks, but the final celebration of the event, will take place on the Fourth of July, when both sections of the territory are expected to unite in a monster demonstration at this point.

Barton Ives, of O. R. & N. fame, is expected to arrive here, via the Cascade switchback by Tuesday next.

The Tacoma fund for the benefit of the Nanaimo sufferers has reached the $1000 notch, and is rapidly increasing.

Senator Warner Miller and party arrived from down the Sound this evening. They leave in the morning for the East.

Samuel Fox, a Philadelphia capitalist, is a guest at The Tacoma.

Mr. W. C. Sharpstein and bride arrived from San Francisco to-day. They will make their home here.

The difficulty in the shipment of H. O. Geiger's dredger has finally been settled and the dredger will arrive within a week. The first work to be done will be dredging a ship channel at the mouth of the Puyallup, from Brown's wharf 600 feet south.

The local assembly of Knights of Labor have summoned M. H. O'Connor to appear before the bar of the order to answer charges of breach of trust and disgraceful and unknightly conduct growing out of his acts in the late strike of railroad laborers.

CALIFORNIA.

A CASE OF VITRIOL-THROWING.

LOS ANGELES, May 12.—A case of vitriol-throwing occurred yesterday which will probably result in the victim losing his eyesight. W. T. Roselle and wife and Charles Petrie boarded in the same house, 128 College street. Both men are engineers, employed on the Southern Pacific railroad. Petrie, who was the victim of the act, states that while he was dressing, Mrs. Roselle called at his room and asked him to visit her at her room. After he was dressed he went to her room and after a brief and angry conversation she picked up a cup full of the fluid and threw it into his face. It pained him terribly and he rushed out to a druggist. He denied the statement that he had insulted her. Roselle, the woman's husband, states that his wife threw the vitriol in Petrie's face by his instructions; that Petrie had insulted her and he prepared the vitriol for her, in case the offense was repeated; that Petrie entered his wife's room and assaulted her, and she threw the vitriol. Mrs. Roselle says that Petrie grossly insulted her and she threw the vitriol at him in self-defense. Petrie's face is a mass of raw flesh from the roots of his hair to his neck, and his sight is probably gone forever. No arrests have yet been made.

TRYING TO EVADE THE RESTRICTION ACT.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—On April 28 eight Chinamen, for examination in the U. S. district court, were declared to have no right to land in this state and were ordered by the court to be returned to China on the same steamer, the City of Peking, on which they arrived in this port on April 4. Pending the next arrival of the Peking the eight Chinamen were placed for safe keeping by the U. S. marshal in the county jail. Two Chinamen called on them Monday and while conversing with them attempted to pass a bundle of clothing to them. The action was detected and the clothing confiscated. The bundle was found to contain carefully prepared diagrams of Chinatown, with a complete list of questions asked in the U. S. courts of Chinamen claiming previous residence, and to each question a minute and elaborate reply was appended. The evident intention of the Chinese was to have appealed their cases to the circuit court after they had mastered the answers to the questions and obtained knowledge of the topography of the city, and so gain the right to remain here.

SHARP SHOCK OF EARTHQUAKE.

SAN BUENA VENTURA, May 12.—About 1 P. M. to-day there occurred here a sharp earthquake shock. It was of short duration, and the motion was from northwest to southeast. In view of the recent shaking up in Arizona and New Mexico our citizens were a little excited and somewhat apprehensive of a succession of more violent shocks. The fears were not realized.

CHICAGO, May 12.—Dispatches received to-night report slight earthquakes at Eureka City, Rhonerville and San Buenaventura, Cal. No damage is reported.

ROHNERVILLE, May 12.—Two distinct shocks of earthquake occurred this morning at about fifteen minutes to 1. The vibrations were southeast and northwest.

EUREKA, May 12.—Two distinct shocks of earthquake, with a rumbling sound, were felt here at 12:35 this morning.

THE Y. M. C. A.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—The international convention of the Young Men's Christian Association has elected the following officers: President, Hon. S. H. Blake, Toronto, Canada; vice-presidents, Maj.-Gen. O. O. Howard, California, H. M. Willard, Vermont, E. E. Richardson, Missouri, L. C. Warner, New York, S. F. Hobbs, Alabama, C. W. Jester, Texas, and W. S. Woodbridge, Minnesota; secretaries, Geo. T. Coxhead, Missouri, C. A. Maydwell, California, and C. F. Sechel, Connecticut.

A FAMILY SUFFERING FROM TRICHINIASIS.

It is reported that a family named Murray, composed of ten persons, living at Twentieth and Mission streets, after indulging in Chinese pork were taken sick with unmistakable symptoms of trichiniasis. The father was taken ill first, followed by the mother in a few hours. Subsequently three of the children were taken with convulsions and their lives are despaired of. The matter will be investigated with hope of fixing the responsibility.

RAILROAD TALK AT LOS ANGELES.

LOS ANGELES, May 12.—The Times says it has received authoritative information that the Southern Utah line is soon to be extended from its present terminus to Los Angeles. The chief engineer and the locating engineer of the Union Pacific are here locating a line through the Sierra Madre mountains. It is claimed that this route will be 110 miles shorter between Chicago and this city than any other.

FREIGHT RATES.

Freight agents only guarantee present freight rates from day to day, as the interstate commissioners may at any moment revoke the suspension of the long and short haul clause of the law. They reduced east bound rates yesterday on wine and wool in car lots to New York or Boston to $1 25 per 100 pounds, and canned goods to $1. Scoured wool rates have been fixed at $2 50 per 100 pounds.

VITRIOL THROWER ARRESTED.

LOS ANGELES, May 12.—Mrs. Roselle was arrested at 10:30 to-night on a warrant sworn out by Deputy Constable W. A. Hunter before Justice Austin, and in default of bail placed under charge of Constable Smith. The warrant charges her with viciously throwing vitrol at another person.

WHALING BARK WRECKED.

Information has been received in this city that the whaling bark Europe, owned by J. N. Knowles, of this city, has been totally wrecked on the coast of Japan.

JUDGE DENNY TO LEAVE COREA.

Advices by the Oceanic steamer state that the Shanghai Mercury learns from a reliable source that Judge Denny is about to leave Corea for good.

THE NEW STEAMER.

The Eastern Oregon, the new steamer for the Oregon Development Company's fleet, left Valparaiso for this port April 19, and is expected daily.

TWENTY YEARS IN SAN QUENTIN.

A. A. Baker, convicted of felonious assault on an 11-year-old girl, was to-day sentenced to twenty years in San Quentin.

OVER THE CANADIAN.

The American Sugar Refinery has sent 2,000,000 pounds of sugar to New York over the Canadian Pacific.

STATE DISPATCHES.

CUT BY A BAD MAN.

ARLINGTON, May 12.—A cutting affray occurred in the Palace saloon in this city last night about 9 o'clock. Jake Burgen had been blowing around town in a bad-man style, and came in the saloon. The bartender, George Beavy, alias George Morris, laughed at him for this. This made Burgen mad, and he jumped at and struck him with an open knife. Beavy warded off the blow, but received two flesh wounds, one behind the shoulder and one in the forearm. Burgen is now in jail, in default of $350 bail.

PACIFIC MAIL ELECTION.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The Pacific Mail directors met to-day and ordered that the transfer books be closed May 18 for the election on May 25. The directors expressed their willingness to make all changes in policy desired by Henry Hart, but no action was taken in regard to preparing the ticket to be voted on at the election.

GRANTED REPRIEVES.

SANTA FE, May 12.—P. J. O'Donnell, who was to have been hanged at Silver City to-morrow, for the murder of Alfonso Bowman, October 3, 1885, and Jasper Thomason, at Socorro, for the murder of A. A. Potter, on September 19, 1885, have been granted reprieves by Gov. Ross, for one week.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

BOSTON, May 12.—The supreme court yesterday held that the provision of the election laws of Massachusetts which provides that no naturalized voter shall be entitled to register or vote within thirty days after his naturalization, is unconstitutional.

HALF AN INCH OF ICE.

SUSANVILLE, Cal., May 12.—Ice formed half an inch thick here last night. The entire fruit crop is killed.

BLAINE LEAVES IN JUNE.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Mr. Blaine's departure is fixed for June 6.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

PROMINENT AND WEALTHY MEN INDICTED.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., May 12.—Col. F. P. Hord, a prominent and wealthy citizen, and Capt. George Redmond, have been indicted by the federal grand jury on the ground of conspiracy to defraud the government of revenue. The indictments are the outgrowth of wholesale smuggling transactions on the Rio Grande border which have been heretofore pursued. Other prominent stockmen are also indicted, whose names are not yet made public.

THE COURTS.

STATE CIRCUIT NO. 2.

Rudolph Hoesly vs. Catherine Hoesly; decree of divorce.

State vs. John Faulis; dismissed for want of evidence to convict.

State vs. Mary Dorner; same order.

State vs. Thomas Fallon; set for trial Thursday, May 19.

POLICE.

In the police court yesterday John Robinson was fined $2 for trespass, and John Tobin a like amount for having been drunk.

Won Quong King forfeited $10 bail on a charge of disorderly conduct. Won is the heathen arrested early yesterday morning by Policeman Brannan and booked for drunk. He was one of a crowd who had quite a circus in the building on Pine street, between First and Second. A great rumpus is raised in this vicinity nightly, and it is about time it was put a stop to. The celestials play a game after the style of "Simon says thumbs up." Every time a Chinaman is caught with his thumbs up he has to drink and the game generally winds up in a "Hi, yi, ti, yi" scene, the noise of which can be heard for blocks. Although this sort of thing has been going on for months Won Quong King is the first person who has been arrested for creating a disturbance. Brannan says he would have arrested seven or eight more of them if he could have got hold of them.

Never Give Up.

If you suffer with Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, Bronchial Catarrh or any disease of the throat, chest or lungs, you will be surprised at the rapid improvement that will follow the use of a few bottles of Santa Abie the most palatable Cough cure in the world. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Promotion of Patriotism.

Chicago Inter-Ocean.

According to President Cleveland and Jefferson Davis the schools should be supplied with biographies of J. C. Calhoun.

Literary Fame.

A Dakota paper has an article on "James Russell," whom it denominates "a Lowell, Massachusetts, crank, who thinks he is bigger than Shakespeare." Such is fame, Mr. Lowell.

COMMERCIAL.

THURSDAY, May 12.

Overland receipts include 5 cs millinery, 2 cs hats, 22 cs boots and shoes, 8 cs rubbers, 14 pkgs dry goods, pianos, 3 organs, 20 kegs fish, 5 bbls whisky, 9 ctes bottles.

PRODUCE RECEIPTS—Past 24 hours include 604 ctls wheat, 326 bbls flour, 618 ctls oats, 141 ctls millstuff, 63 sks potatoes, 15 lbs hides, 35 cs butter, 250 cs eggs.

FREIGHTS—The spot disposable list is five iron and one wood. New business for a week is made up of a lumber charter out of the river to South America. One iron leaves for Taltal in ballast. The Glenmore sailed with a flour cargo. In port, the Banffshire has cleared with flour and there is the County of Merioneth for wheat loading. The Glenavon has engaged a lot of oil in barrels and will soon be ready for salmon, which class of freight will not be freely offered this or next month. The market is inactive and wholly nominal as to grain business. San Francisco has reported three wooden taken at 20s direct, one at 22s 6d for orders, and one iron at 23s 9d for orders.

REGISTERED TONNAGE STATEMENT.

In port—Finished with flour	899
To load wheat	1,065
For New York	1,339
For salmon loading	2,228
For lumber do	2,096
Iron disengaged	5,188
Wood do	1,193	—14,018
On way—Due May	1,210
Due later on	6,807	— 8,017

WHEAT—Receipts for the week about 1700 tons, and mostly from the Eastern section. Shipments by two steamers, 2176 tons of both grades. No foreign movement and only one vessel at hand to load. The market has ruled quiet, transactions being infrequent. Valley has sold at a shade better than reported a week ago. Late sales at $1 58¾ are said to fairly state the market, and half a cent more could not be said to be readily obtainable. Offerings are not at all numerous and holdings at $1 60 are mentioned. Walla Walla cannot be satisfactorily quoted. It is in no request for shipment, but buyers for that purpose say $1 35 is about their idea. For milling $1 40 was last mentioned, although conditions advanced the cost to buyer beyond this. In the interior trading is again quiet and generally not far from $1 40 here.

Strong markets were cabled for most of the week and an easy feeling at one time noted has been followed by new confidence. British new supplies are only of moderate volume, but stocks are liberal. The quantity afloat is slightly increased, a decrease in that to the United Kingdom being more than offset by an increase in the afloat for the continent. New York and Chicago have continued active and St. Louis, Duluth and other markets are doing a good business. Prices are not greatly changed from a week ago, a loss being more than recovered. San Francisco for the most part has not been active, although there was a large dealing on Wednesday when prices fluctuated considerably. Buyer season has fallen back several cents, the option now practically being May. Buyer year fell to $2 03⅜ from $2 06 a week ago. An increased trade in monthly options is noted. The markets at noon to-day are of different tone. San Francisco and New York appear weak while Chicago and London are firm.

Noon prices in three markets at noon to-day and a week ago compare as follows:

	New York—5th.	12th.	Chicago 5th.	12th.
May	96	96⅛	83	81¾
June	95⅛	96⅛	85½	86⅝

MILLSTUFF—Wednesday's steamer carried out 50 tons middlings. Local stocks are slightly increased and orders are more easily filled, late receipts having shown some increase. Values firm throughout. Jobbing prices are: Bran $21@22, shorts $24@25, chop $28@30, ground barley $30@32, cracked corn $27 50@30, whole do $25, oil meal $32 50 per ton.

POTATOES—Deliveries light from all quarters, severe weather and low country stocks reducing business. Advices at the close are of a lower market but paying prices here are maintained, buyers now quoting $1 85@2 for Garnets, $1 90@2 for Peerless and $2@2 10 for Burbanks, new California have sold at 3c.

Easter and buyers lowering bids with last advices. The range is about 10c below that quoted above.

FRUITS—Apples scarce and new arrivals next to nothing. The range is 50c@$1 25. Oranges sell well at $2 50@5. Lemons firm at $5 75@6 25. Bananas $4. Cherries 22½c.

BUTTER—The very best roll is quoted 22½@25c, while California roll sells at 21@22c and pickled roll 20c. Low to fair grades local find no favor. Supplies of good local have increased to an extent that greatly lessens the receipt of California.

VEGETABLES—Selling prices are: Cabbage 2½c, peas 4c, rhubarb 4c, asparagus 3½c per lb; celery 95c, cauliflower $1 25 per dozen; tomatoes $ per box.

EGGS—The market improved to 20c late in the week under a good request. Receipts large. Orders from the outside are now of importance. Dealers have been casting about for a way in which to better regulate the market and avoid frequent price changes. A large number think two changes a week would answer all demands of the market and better control or guide buying by consignors. Others think eggs should take their chances in the market with other products, and believe they can do better by their customers in the long run by taking any advantage of the market possible. It is an undisputed fact that eggs are very irregular in price and often cannot be satisfactorily quoted, sales one hour being no criterion for the next. A combination is disclaimed, but a number of dealers have expressed themselves as favoring fixed prices about twice a week. Those not named as so expressing themselves will act as usual, and there is no foundation for statements that one firm ruled the market at pleasure. Receipts to-day were heavy, and near the close some dealers were willing sellers at a shade less than 20c.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, May 12.—The improvement in the stock market continued to-day, the advance being very slow, but steady, subject, however, to frequent unimportant reactions, caused by realizations of profits. The opening was active and strong, although advances over last evening's figures were for small fractions only. Fluctuations were narrow and trading was of slight interest until the afternoon, when Richmond & West Point developed decided strength. One or two unimportant reactions occurred during the afternoon, but the close was materially active and firm and close to the best prices of the day.

Government bonds were dull and steady to firm.

THE EAST SIDE.

Mr. Silas Dildine, of this city, received yesterday, from Honolulu, the sad intelligence of the death of his son William. He died April 13, just one month ago to-day. The letter written by S. G. Shaw, his employer at the livery stables where the accident took place, contains a full account of the occurrence from the time the young man sustained the terrible fall, by which his back was broken, up to the time the last sad rites were performed over his grave in Honolulu. From the letter the mournful satisfaction is obtained by his parents and friends in East Portland that, though the young man died in a strange land, he was, to his last moments, surrounded with all the comforts sympathizing friends could provide. His remains were buried at Honolulu and his grave was strewn with flowers as evidence of esteem, while Mr. Shaw, his employer, pays high tribute to the young man's trustworthiness. Rev. J. A. Cruzan, formerly pastor of the Congregational church in Portland, officiated at the funeral. The case is one of great sadness to his parents, who have been hoping that they would again see their son alive during the past month, but all this time he has been dead. The only consolation his parents can derive—which is not much in this case—is in the knowledge they have that he has received proper attention all through. He was born in California and was 21 years of age at his death.

MAIL MATTERS.

Information from San Francisco has been received in relation to the mail service on the Oregon & California railroad. The east side reporter was informed by a gentleman connected with the mail service that while he was not at liberty to give the full information, the mail service would undoubtedly soon be increased over the Oregon & California railroad. The passenger traffic over this line is rapidly increasing, and it is thought that within a month another Pullman sleeper will have to be attached to the through train.

DOG SHOT.

As Mrs. Harriet Pangburn last evening was passing the northwest corner of Sixth and F streets, a dog, owned by Asa L. Tyler, ran out and made an attack on her, when she shot him twice through the neck, putting an end to all his savage tendency. The animal came out after her Wednesday, and Mrs. Pangburn last night was prepared for him and gave him what he deserved and no more.

WHOLESOME LESSON.

Herbert Hunt and Henry Hunt, brothers, were arrested yesterday afternoon for being drunk and disorderly. Their principal offense was insulting conduct toward ladies whom they met on the streets. They are from over the river, where they are employed in some capacity. A wholesome lesson will be imparted to them before their cases are concluded.

FAST DRIVING.

Two young men were placed under arrest yesterday for fast driving on Water street. They were fined $5 each, which was paid. The city marshal happened to be on Water street where the two were speeding their horses. Fast driving is more injurious to the roadways than anything else and the city marshal intends to enforce the ordinance in relation thereto.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL.

Concert to-night in the Baptist church at Mount Tabor.

East Portland was yesterday canvassed for subscriptions for the Nanaimo sufferers.

The street commissioner yesterday put in a wooden culvert out on Division street.

F. N. Burkhart, of Albina, has been appointed yard master at Umatilla Junction, O. R. & N.

The track from L street to M is being raised to the established grade. A train of flat cars has been hauling gravel for that purpose.

John Orton, of Albina, met with an accident Wednesday, by which his hand was nearly severed from the wrist. He was engaged at the terminal works at the time. He has suffered intensely.

Baseball experts yesterday afternoon were on the ground at the Oaks getting their hand in for next Sunday. The outlook now is that fine weather will be had, and that there will be no interference of any kind.

There is a boom of piling in the slough on the north side of N street roadway. It is stated that a large building will be put on Mr. Ladd's property. Just now it looks as if N street will be lined with buildings in a few weeks.

Mr. J. Angel, superintendent of the Grand Ronde Hydraulic Mining Company, started for the camp last evening. He thinks that operations will be commenced in the mine within one week. He disposed of considerable stock during the past few days.

The tramp whom officer Robertson arrested the other evening has been in the city three times before. He has given a new name each time, and the last time he gave the name of Sullivan. More offenders masquerade under the name of Sullivan than any other. He was given ten days in the city jail.

RUSSIAN INTRIGUE.

VIENNA, May 12.—A report is current here that the Russian minister at Teheran is trying to induce the Russian government to liberate Ayoub Kahn, for whose safe keeping England pays a subsidy.

TO PRISON FOR LIBEL.

BERLIN, May 12.—Editor Freissinige, of the Zeitung, has been sentenced to imprisonment for one month for libeling Prince Bismarck's political character.

Angostura Bitters do not only distinguish themselves by their flavor and aromatic odor above all others generally used, but they are also a sure preventive for all diseases originating from the digestive organs. DR. JOHN BULL'S
SMITH'S TONIC SYRUP
FEVER and AGUE
Or CHILLS and FEVER,
AND ALL MALARIAL DISEASES.

The proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for it a superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the SAFE, CERTAIN, SPEEDY and PERMANENT cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He refers to the entire Western and Southern country to bear him testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure if the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order. Should the patient, however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of KENT'S VEGETABLE FAMILY PILLS will be sufficient. Use no other.

Cancer of the Tongue.

My wife, some three or four years ago, was troubled with an ulcer on the side of her tongue near the throat. The pain was incessant, causing loss of sleep and producing great nervous prostration. Accompanying this trouble was rheumatism. It had passed from the shoulders and centered in the wrist of one hand, she almost losing the use of it. Between the suffering of the two, life had grown burdensome. By the use of a half dozen small sized bottles of Swift's Specific, she was entirely relieved and restored to health. This was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease. H. L. MIDDLEBROOKS.
